

BLOODY CRIME AT EVANSVILLE

Two Women Are Found Strangled in the Indiana Town.

WATCH SEVEN MEN

Mrs. Georgia Rayley and Miss
Lena Renner Are Victims of a Murder.

MOTIVE IS UNKNOWN

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 13.—The entire police department are trying to ferret out the murderers of Mrs. Geo. Rayley and Lena Renner, who were strangled to death and the bodies found at different points on the public highway outside of the city. Seven men are under arrest but no evidence has been secured that will justify making any arrests. A St. Louis traveling man, with whom Mrs. Rayley had secretly been friendly is being looked for. The man has a family. On the night of the murder Mrs. Rayley's house was entered and all of her letters carried away.

THE POLICE ARE MYSTIFIED

Strangling of Two Women at Evansville, Ind., Creates Sensation

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 13.—Two mysterious murders, the victim in each case being a woman and the crimes being committed in exactly the same way, were committed in this city at night. Both bodies were found in the morning in the outskirts of the city, each lying in a ditch beside a public highway, but several miles separated the final scenes in the tragedies. The dead women were Mrs. Georgia Rayley, a comely widow of forty years, and Miss Lena Renner, a pretty girl.

Each Woman Choked to Death.
Each woman had been choked to death, for the marks of fingers showed plainly on their throats, and each had had gone for a buggy ride last evening. Each was seen with a young man not known in the city, or at least not recognized by the friends of either woman. Never have the police been confronted with such a remarkable coincidence in crimes. Since the discovery of the bodies, Mrs. Rayley's shortly after daylight, and Miss Renner's this evening, the entire force has been called into service, and the day men, as well as the night men, are following up every clew which seems to give hope of clearing up the strange mystery.

Perhaps Both Slain by One Man.
Some hold to the theory that both murders were committed by the same man, the method of the slayer being identical in both cases. It is believed that Mrs. Rayley was killed some hours before Miss Renner met her doom, as a rain storm during the evening furnishes a clue to the time of the crimes. Mrs. Rayley had apparently been killed before the storm commenced, as the ground under her was dry. Miss Renner was slain either during the rain or after it, as marks of a struggle were found in the clay of the road near where the corpse was found, and there was mud on the soles of her shoes.

Time to Return for New Victim.
The interval between the two crimes was sufficient to permit the slayer of Mrs. Rayley to return to town and meet Miss Renner. It is isolated by many that this must have been the case. What possible motive existed for either crime no one is able to explain. Neither woman was known to have had an enemy and nothing is known to link the two of them in any affair likely to furnish an excuse for one man to attack both.

MILWAUKEE ROAD CUTS THE TIME; CHICAGO TO ST. PAUL, TEN HOURS

Fast Mail Will Carry a Sleeper and Make Running
Time in Two Hours Less—May Result in Rate War.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—When the fast mail on the Milwaukee road left the Union passenger station last night a ten-hour schedule was inaugurated between Chicago and St. Paul. The fast mail carried a sleeper filled with passengers for the Twin cities, and the opposite train which left St. Paul and Minneapolis last evening, carried a similar sleeper.

The new service effects a cut in time from thirteen hours and twenty minutes to ten hours from Chicago to St. Paul and twelve hours and five minutes from St. Paul to Chicago.

The action of the Milwaukee officials follows the notice sent out last week to traffic officials of other Chicago-St. Paul lines that the company no longer consider the time agreement between the two cities as binding. It is probable that if the new service proves popular with the public a regular ten hour schedule will

The body of Mrs. Rayley was found in the morning near the city beside a public highway. There were finger marks on the throat. The neck was broken.

Search for the Second Woman.
A mile outside the city, but in an opposite direction, the body of Miss Renner was discovered by searchers. The girl left her home rather late in the evening, saying she had an appointment to see a friend. When the morning passed with no news from the young woman her friends became alarmed and the police were notified. Then it developed that the girl was seen late in the evening with a man in a buggy, driving toward the country. The searching parties followed this road and broken bushes and footprints leading to the ditch brought about the discovery of the body.

Recalls Former Crimes.
The similarities of these two murders to two others in this city during the last three years forms another strange incident of the case. In April, 1898, Mrs. Mary Stork went buggy riding with a stranger. The next morning her dead body was found in a ditch. The man who took her life was never discovered. Mrs. Stork was a prominent young woman and a great sensation followed her death. In April the following year Miss Nora Kifer of Elberfeld, Ind., while visiting here, suddenly disappeared. Her body was found weighted down in a creek the following month. Joseph D. Keith, a wealthy farmer, will be hanged next Friday for the crime.

SOCIETY GIRL IS MISSING.

Friends Think That Clara Raddatz of Oshkosh Has Committed Suicide.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 13.—Clara Raddatz, aged 16, a resident of the south side, has disappeared and is believed by the police and friends to have committed suicide by drowning in the Fox river. Miss Raddatz was a spirited and vivacious young woman and given much to society. Her girl friends declare that for some days previous to her departure from her accustomed places she had been melancholy and had threatened to take her life. She has not been seen since Thursday of last week.

COUNTY SCHOOLS OF AGRICULTURE

Superintendent L. D. Harvey Goes to Menomonie to Discuss Opening of Institutions.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 13.—State Supt. of Schools L. D. Harvey left for Menomonie last night, where he will meet the county board to discuss the establishment of a county school of agriculture and domestic science under the law enacted last winter.

Thursday night he will go to Alma in Buffalo county, where he will also meet the county board and discuss the establishment of a training school for teachers. Friday night, at Jefferson, he will address the county board on the establishment of both schools. Under the law the two counties which first establish such schools will receive one half of the instructional aid from the state. Marathon county will probably be one of these, as it is expected a school will be established there next week. The object of the schools, in addition to the instruction given the young men of the county, is to form a preparatory school for the state university short course in agriculture. This will give the faculty of the state school the opportunity to raise the standard of their institution at least to the extent of a year's work.

LARGEST ICE FLOE AFLOAT IN ALASKA

Port Townsend, Wash., Nov. 13.—The Steamer Alk from Skagway reports a great wind and snowstorm on the southern coast of Alaska. An ice floe larger than any ever known, due to the breaking of a glacier by an earthquake is endangering shipping.

Silas Menzies was up from Beloit yesterday on legal business.

GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY POOL; MAGNATES MET IN NEW YORK TODAY

Giant Combine Being Formed Which Will Control the Rates on All the Roads—Union Pacific
Will Control the St. Paul.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 13.—J. P. Morgan & Co. today secured a charter for the Northwestern security company with a capital of four hundred million dollars. Among the objects for which the articles of incorporation say the company is organized is the purchase and acquisition of stocks, bonds and securities of other corporations. The company is admitted to be a branch of the million dollar steel company and is the beginning of a consolidation of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Great Northern, St. Paul and Burlington and Chicago and Northwestern railroads, whose combined trackage is 47,372 miles and capital stock is $1,042,837,186.

New York, November 13.—Railroad magnates from the northwest are beginning to arrive to attend the Northern Pacific meeting today and the Burlington meeting tomorrow. President C. S. Mellen and his fellow officers in Northern Pacific and J. J. Hill and the Great Northern faction are already here. Representatives of the Union Pacific and the Chicago & Northwestern also are here. STANDS FIRM FOR MONROE DOCTRINE

President Roosevelt in His Message
Will Take Stand Against European Encroachment.

Washington, Nov. 13.—No European encroachment upon the soil of America either by direct acquisition or by the purchase of coaling stations, is to be one of the keynotes of President's Roosevelt's message to congress.

The president is to have something to say about the Monroe doctrine, and he will speak in no uncertain words. He intends to reaffirm the vital principle of Monroeism, and to apply it to modern conditions. In the president's opinion a consistent enforcement of the Monroe doctrine requires the United States to object to the establishment of foreign naval stations in the special sphere of American interest and influence—namely, the West Indies, the Caribbean sea and the isthmus of Darien. On account of the acquisition by the United States of Porto Rico, our territory over Cuba, our contemplated purchase of the Danish islands in the West Indies and the moral certainty that sooner or later the United States will dig an isthmian canal, the interests of the United States in that region assume paramountcy over those of all other powers.

SEEK TO CORNER THE EGG MARKET

Chicago Packing Houses Have Acquired 500,000 Cases Now in Cold Storage—Price is Up.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Eggs promise to be as expensive in January as strawberries. Armour & Co., Swift & Co. and the big refrigerating houses are placing in cold storage every case of eggs they can buy. They expect to have the market at their mercy by Jan. 15, when a fresh laid egg will be a rarity. Then, it is asserted, the public will be compelled to meet the demands of the combine or abstain from eggs.

The retailers of eggs have shown their alarm over the threatening conditions by demanding 27 cents a dozen for their supply. A week ago eggs could be bought for 22 cents and yet nothing has interfered to impede shipments from the country. Reports from Northern Illinois and Wisconsin are to the effect that only the advent of the coldest weather will put a stop to the favorable conditions.

This fall the outlook is not so favorable for a corner, though the movement is indisputably in that direction. The protracted mild weather has indicated that fresh eggs will be shipped to South Water street as late as December 1. The rise of nearly 8 cents in the retail price of eggs within a week can only be accounted for on the score that the present supply almost wholly is being directed to the cold storage warehouses.

REQUISITION FOR JOHN H. JOYCE OUT

The Alleged Stoughton Defaulter Will Be Brought from Illinois for Trial.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—A requisition was issued by Gov. Ernor La Follette yesterday upon J. H. Joyce, charged with embezzlement of the $40,000 of the funds of the defunct bank at Stoughton of which he was cashier, and whose failure is alleged to have been brought about through his peculations. Joyce is under arrest in Chicago, and Sheriff Burmeister has gone there to bring him back. A large part of the bank's money was loaned for investment in Texas lands in which it is claimed Joyce was interested and which have failed to bring returns.

CARNEGIE GIVES $2,000,000 MORE

Increases His Former Endowments of Pittsburg Institute and Polytechnic School a Million Each.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 13.—Just before the close of an all afternoon meeting of the board of trustees of the Carnegie Institute yesterday, Andrew Carnegie announced that he had decided to increase by $2,000,000 his already large donations—$1,000,000 to Carnegie Institute and $1,000,000 to the new polytechnic school.

Carnegie said he would increase his original offer to endow a polytechnic school from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000, provided the city of Pittsburg would donate a site. His original proposition was to furnish money for the erection and equipment of a polytechnic school, at whatever cost the board of trustees agreed upon, and start it with an endowment of $1,000,000. This endowment he raised to $2,000,000. Because of the rapid growth of the institute which comprises the art, music, and literary departments, Mr. Carnegie said he would increase its endowment from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000.

The board of trustees adopted plans for the new school and selected a site for the buildings. The buildings will be modeled after the Worcester Technical school, and the site comprising eleven acres which the board will ask the city to donate, lies just west of the Carnegie library building and extending along Forbes avenue to Bouquet street. The city has already optioned this property from Mrs. Mary Scheley, and it is believed that the erection of the school buildings will begin in a very short time.

HAULS MINISTERS OVER THE COALS

Mayor Rose Stigmatizes Charges of Crime in Milwaukee as Unfair and Untrue.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 13.—Mayor Rose today stated that the charges made by the committee of three of the Ministers' association are not only unfair, but untrue. They said in their report that the charge was repeated from the pulpits of the preachers who made the report of the committee the text of sermons, that "open, flagrant and lawless forms of vice" were common here, and that the nonenforcement of the laws was due to criminal neglect in high places.

Mayor Rose calls attention to the fact that there is not a single wine-room in the city like those alluded to in the message of Mayor Harrison of Chicago, and that in all his administration he has had but three complaints against gambling houses and none at all against stall saloons. He says he searched the committee report and the sermons in vain for any trace of fairness or Christian charity, and that the course of the preachers prove that they were not animated by unselfish motives in their expression of desire to reform evil and correct wrong, but rather to bring themselves into public notice by sensational charges.

He notes the fact that the services of a detective were needed to discover the "open vice" and that the streets of this city are absolutely free from marauders of any kind, and that life and property are safer here than in any other city in the country.

HONOR THE STATE AND NOT THE MAN

London, Nov. 13.—The king has decided that in the coronation celebration no distinction will be made between the titles of king, emperor and president. He declares the object is to honor the state and not the man who is at its head. Englishmen are not aware of any constitutional obstruction and hope Roosevelt will come.

NO SIGN OF PEACE IN SOUTH AFRICA

War Will Not End While 8,000 Boers and Cape Town Rebels Hold the Mountain Passes.

London, Nov. 13.—Peace negotiations are reported from every quarter except General Botha's headquarters in the saddle. The National Liberal Federation is agitating for full and explicit declaration of terms from Downing street but this is a political maneuver directed by pro-Boers. Kruger and Leyds are credited for the first time with a willingness to consider something less than actual national independence as a basis of peace but rumors from Holland are contradictory and illusory.

There is a story that Boers in arms have approached Kitchener and intimated a desire for peace without reference to Kruger, Steyn or Botha, but this is transparent fiction started for the purpose of explaining Lord Salisbury's veiled reference to grounds of confidence which he could not lay bare.

There can be no peace while 8,000 Boers and Cape rebels hold the field under a dozen or more guerilla leaders. Kitchener's last report shows how scattered these forces are and how narrow is their range of operations. Dewet has reappeared in a quarter of the Orange River colony where he can co-operate with Botha and it is surmised that another attempt to invade Natal is impending.

QUAY'S FIGHTS ARE OVER

Pennsylvania Senator Will No Longer
Control the Machine.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Matthew Stanley Quay, United States senator from Pennsylvania, today emphatically asserted that he had retired from active politics.

"At a banquet given in Philadelphia last spring," said Senator Quay, "I announced that when I took the oath as senator in January I then retired from active politics. I will now reiterate this and say that I have quit politics for good, and under no consideration will I be a candidate for reelection. Neither will I resign."

DESIRES TO DINE WITH ROOSEVELT

White Eagle, Chief of Poncas, Believes That an Indian Is Just as Good as White Man.

Guthrie, Ok., Nov. 13.—White Eagle, the aged philosopher chief of the Ponca Indians, declares that while he might entertain Booker T. Washington at dinner should the colored educator visit his teepee, yet he is very positive that in no other manner should an Indian whose pedigree is as old as the sun have ought to do with a man whose skin is black.

"White Eagle thinks it proper," he said, "that the white father at Washington should give to big Indian chief same treatment as to big negro chief. No Indian chief ever ate at white father's table. This is not good. My pedigree is as old as sun, moon and stars; older than white father's, negro chief's pedigree only since the great white father set him free. White Eagle believes Indian just as good as white man. Indian should have white woman in his teepee. White man should have Indian squaw. Not so with negro, he not good enough to have white squaw. No Ponca propose shall go to negro school. If he do then Ponca disown him."

"White Eagle will go to Washington to see white father and will tell white father that Ponca Indians want lands allotted. He will ask White Eagle, whose pedigree is as old as sun, to eat at his table. White Eagle will eat. That will be good."

NO OPPOSITION FOR HENDERSON

Washington, Nov. 13.—Speaker Henderson of the house will arrive at the capitol next Friday and will have no opposition for the speakership. The house will organize next month without a flurry. Henderson's re-election will mean that Seno Payne of New York will continue to be the leader of the republicans on the floor. Richardson of Tennessee may have some opposition for the democratic leadership and there is some talk of putting in Dearmond of Missouri.

SHOOT AT EVERYTHING IN SIGHT; HUNTERS KILL MEN AND BEASTS

Record So Far in the Woods of Northern Wisconsin is Five Dead and Five Wounded.

Ashland, Wis., Nov. 13.—Two men, about forty deer and a dozen head of cattle is the result of the opening of the deer hunting season in this vicinity. The report concerning the killing of the two men comes authentically from Bayfield and Douglas counties, and reports that two hunters were killed there yesterday, one near Mason and one near Superior.

The morning and evening trains brought many deer to Ashland, and nearly as many slain cattle have been left in the woods. There is a tremendous uproar among the farmers of Ashland county owing to the carelessness of hunters in mistaking cattle for deer. The slaughter of cattle and horses is very great every year. J. T. STORM SWEEPS OVER ENGLAND

Heavy Gales Endanger
Lives and Shipping on English Coast.

REPORT 150 DEAD

Big Vessels Are Ashore, and Numerous Disasters on the Land and Sea.

IRELAND IS FLOODED

London, Nov. 13.—The disastrous gale, which swept over England yesterday continues today, although abating somewhat in fury. Reports of damage to shipping and loss of life continues to come in. Several members of the crew of the Dover lightship are believed to have lost their lives when that ship went down. A vessel has sunk off Dungeness and it is feared that the entire crew was lost.

The rain fell forty hours in Ireland swelling the rivers and flooding the towns along the bank, causing great distress to the poor. Many streets in Belfast are flooded and a revenue cutter has been wrecked in the Firth of Forth. Twenty-three of the crew were drowned.

One hundred and fifty deaths have been reported from all points since the gale began.

Furious Sea Running.
There is a furious sea running on all the coasts, destroying seawalls, piers and shorebridges. The lifeboats and the coast guards are busily employed in assisting distressed vessels. Numerous wrecks have been reported, especially on the Durham and Northumberland coasts, where eight persons were drowned. Several deaths are reported from other places.

Steamer Ashore at Dover.
The steamer St. Elmo was driven ashore at Dover. The crew narrowly escaped death, but was rescued by lifeboats. The vessel is breaking up.

The steamer Cato collided with the British ship Loch Vennachar, Captain Bennett, which left Melbourne on August 16 for London, at the mouth of the Thames. The latter foundered, but the crew was saved.

Scotland Almost Isolated.
The dam at Lake Tanderagee, on the Duke of Manchester's estate has broken and caused considerable destruction. One man was killed. Part of Belfast is severely flooded. The water in the streets has prevented the opening of the principal theater of the city. There have been many street accidents.

There are heavy floods on the Isle of Man and in Wales the mills in the Yorkshire Valley have stopped. The telegraphs are badly damaged. Scotland is almost isolated.

MAY PROCLAIM A MEMORIAL DAY

Roosevelt Asked to Name a Date for National Holiday to Raise McKinley Memorial Fund.

Washington, Nov. 13.—A plan to obtain the entire sum necessary for the erection of a McKinley memorial arch will be adopted by the association shortly in this city. President Roosevelt will be asked to appoint by proclamation a memorial day upon which subscriptions can be received by every postmaster in the United States. The day is to be a national holiday. More than one million and a half of dollars it is believed can be raised in one day in this manner.

ROOSEVELT BUYS A PAIR OF HORSES

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—President Roosevelt bought from a local horse dealer two handsome bays. The price is said to be twenty thousand dollars. They have been named General and Admiral by the president.

FINEST PROGRAM EVER GIVEN BY MUSICAL-LITERARY SOCIETY

Large Audience Delighted Last Evening at Christ Church Parish House—Some Notable Features.

One of the finest is not the very best program ever given by the Musical-Literary society delighted a large audience of members at the Christ church parish house last evening. The attendance was exceptionally large and with but few exceptions the members responded to the request to be in their places promptly at 8 o'clock, the intention being to begin the program at that time in the future. The innovation is one that will give general satisfaction and deserves hearty support.

The program began quite promptly last evening. The subject for the evening's study was the early school of American composers and the program was made up of selections from their works, especially of Gottschalk and Dudley Buck, and of literary articles concerning them.

The literary part of the program included sketches of Dudley Buck and Gottschalk, by Miss Emma Paulson, whose papers were among the most carefully prepared, instructing and entertaining ones ever presented before the society; the reading of brief and interesting extracts from a book on "National Characteristics in Music" by Miss Charlotte Prichard, and current events by Miss May Felton. This latter is a new feature of the Musical-Literary program and provided a delightful addition, Miss Felton having gathered together bits of gossip and news from the musical world.

The instrumental part of the program was exceptionally fine. A piano duet by Miss Rose Hathorn and Miss May Treat, who played "Royal Gaelic March" from "Macbeth," by Edgar Stillman Kelley, was the brilliant opening number for the evening and it was beautifully given. A second piano duet was also greatly enjoyed by the society, it being "Secret d'Amour" by Bruno Oscar Klein, artistically rendered by Mrs. Malcolm O. Mount and Miss Marie Paulson.

Two piano solos were a part of the instrumental program, Mrs. James S. Fifeid delighting her audience with the expressive delicacy with which she interpreted the exquisite melody of a "Cradle Song" by Gottschalk, and Miss Carrie Spaulding of Brodhead, playing "Fasquinate" by Gottschalk with a brilliancy of execution and spirit that made it one of the gems of the evening. Miss Spaulding is one of Mrs. J. F. Sweeney's pupils and she received a cordial welcome from the Musical-Literary society.

One of the best instrumental numbers was a duet for violin and cello given by Oscar Halverson and F. F. Lewis. Mrs. Lewis accompanying them on the piano in a faultless manner. The selection chosen was a beautiful one, "Elegie" by Ernst, in which the full rich tones of the stringed instruments were heard at excellent advantage.

The vocal program was no less delightful and no number was more artistic than the rendition of Nevin's "The Rosary" by Harry Robinson, who uses his melodious voice with such unflinching taste that it is always a pleasure to listen to his singing. Mrs. Christine P. Hawley was also at her best last evening and the brilliancy and changing expressions in Dudley Buck's "Spring's Awakening" made the selection one to which her clear soprano voice is especially adapted.

Leonard M. Mathews also found exceptional opportunities in "Creole Lover's Song" by Dudley Buck and he never sang better than he did last evening. His barytone solo was one of the best numbers on the program. The society was especially pleased to welcome Miss Ruby Garlick, of Beloit, as a member. Miss Garlick is one of the best known vocalists in Southern Wisconsin and she has won an enviable name for herself as a member of Schumann's Ladies' quartet. She gave a double number last evening, "Thou" by Neidlinger and "Before the Dawn" by Chadwick, the two widely different selections serving to show the capabilities of her powerful voice. Miss Garlick has studied under Myron Barnes, of Rockford.

The program concluded with a splendid vocal quartet, Dudley Buck's beautiful arrangement of "Lead, Kindly Light," in which the melodious voices of Mrs. Christine Hawley, Mrs. C. S. Putnam, George K. Colling and George S. Paris blended effectively. Mrs. J. F. Sweeney played the piano accompaniments for all the vocal numbers in her usual artistic manner, the accompaniment to "Creole Lover's Song" being especially delightful.

Several new members were admitted to the society at last evening's meeting and the promise is very bright for the best year in the history of the society. During the evening three announcements of interest to musical people were made. Mrs. Sweeney announced that Myron F. Barnes, of Rockford, would be in the city Thursday for the purpose of securing a class in vocal music. He expects to visit the city once a week. J. Rexford, president of the society, called attention to the fact that a subscription paper for the Pittsburgh orchestra would be placed in the People's Drug store and urged members of the society to sign the list and tell their friends about it. Mrs. J. F. Pembler, who heard the orchestra three times in Buffalo, endorsed the concerts very highly.

The final announcement, which gave especial pleasure, was made by Mrs. Sweeney, chairman of the program committee, and was to the effect that Mrs. John G. Rexford had consented to sing all of the solos on the Haydn-Mozart program for the next meeting.

The plan was not a visionary thing. The hour following the close of Rev. Henderson's talk was devoted to five minute talks by Father Goebel, F. C. Grant, J. A. Craig, E. H. Ryan, Rev. Henderson, T. O. Howe, Edwin Fifeid, George G. Sutherland and H. H. Bliss.

The session was closed by a five-minute discussion between L. B. Carle who spoke from the capitalists' standpoint and Rev. R. C. Denison from the laborers'. This was very interesting and one of the special features of the evening.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The only colored moving pictures ever exhibited are seen with the Kinodrome show. Cinderella and the glass slipper, a grand spectacular production of the Drury Lane, London, is presented. The dear old story, beautifully illustrated in perfect animation, and colored true to life, is one of the many novel features seen only with this big production. Three nights beginning tomorrow at the Myers Grand.

Local theatre goers will have the opportunity of seeing the red garb of Mephisto in a sumptuous new production of Lewis Morrison's "Faust" soon. The news that "the Devil is coming" will be welcomed by many who have seen this play.

ENTHUSIASTIC CONVERTS

There are Thousands of Them Who Believe as This Woman Does. Mrs. Ira Knowlton, of Butte, Montana, is a most enthusiastic convert to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets as a cure for obstinate stomach trouble. She says: "I had poor digestion nearly all my life. It now seems to me that for years I never knew what it was to be hungry, to have a good natural appetite.

"I was troubled with gas in stomach, causing pressure on the heart with palpitation and short breath. Nearly everything I ate soured on my stomach, sometimes I had cramps in the stomach which almost resembled spasms.

"Doctors told me I had catarrh of the stomach, but their medicines would not reach it and I would still be a sufferer had I not, in sheer desperation, decided to try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

"I knew they were an advertised remedy and I didn't believe anything I read about them as I had no confidence in advertised remedies, but my sister living in Pittsburg wrote me last spring telling me how Stuart's Tablets had cured her little daughters of indigestion and loss of flesh and appetite and I hesitated no longer.

"I bought a fifty cent box at my drug store and took two of the large tablets after each meal and found them delightful, to take, being as pleasant to the taste as caramel candy. Whenever during the day or night I felt any pain or uneasiness in the stomach or about the heart I took one of the small tablets and in three weeks it seemed to me as if I had never known what stomach trouble was.

"I keep Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the house and every member of our family uses them occasionally after a hearty meal or when any of us have a pain or ache in the digestive organs."

Mr. E. H. Davis of Hampton, Va., says: "I doctored five years for dyspepsia, but in two months I got more benefit from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets than in five years of the doctors' treatment."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, bloating after meals, sympathetic heart trouble.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is not a cheap cathartic but an active digestive remedy containing the pepsin and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and they cure stomach troubles because they digest the food eaten, and give the weak, abused, over-worked stomach a chance to rest and recuperate.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold in every drug store in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

LOANI BAND OF KING'S DAUGHTERS

Meeting Held at the Congregational Church Parlor Last Night Was of Unusual Interest.

The meeting of the Loani band of King's Daughters of the Congregational church, held in the church parlors last evening, was one of unusual interest. Members of the Covenant club, the young girls' missionary society, were present as guests of the Loani band and the young ladies of the two societies enjoyed thoroughly the social meeting together. The usual appetizing tea was served at 6 o'clock after which the interesting program of the evening was given.

The young ladies were especially favored last evening by the presence of Mrs. A. J. Hutton, who attended the recent meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions for the Interior, at Oberlin, Ohio, and of Mrs. H. J. Openshaw, the missionary from Western China, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. H. Fisher, in this city. Both ladies contributed very interesting talks, Mrs. Hutton giving a bright and entertaining report of the W. B. M. I. Meeting. While in Oberlin, Mrs. Hutton was the guest of Mrs. Little, formerly superintendent of the State School for the Blind in this city.

Mrs. Openshaw talked charmingly of the home life of the missionary in Western China. Mrs. Openshaw went to China as an unmarried woman. She told of her wedding in China, of the three months' trip up the river to her home in the province of Sz Chuan and of the manner in which the missionary live in the same house with Rev. and Mrs. Upcraft who are personal friends of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Denison.

TWILIGHT CLUB ON LABOR AND CAPITAL

An Interesting And Profitable Discussion on a Current Topic—Lecturer from Ex-Supt. Mayne

"Labor and Capital" held the attention of the Twilight club last evening at its meeting at the Myers. About one hundred and fifty members were present at the supper which was up to the usual excellent standard. The dining room was perfectly ventilated by the use of electric fans which were put in by Judge Fifeid and the Janesville Electric company. They were tendered a vote of thanks by the gathering.

Dr. S. B. Buckmaster was to be the leader but at his last minute on account of professional matters he was unable to be present. A. E. Matheson was chosen in his stead and notified the speakers that the ten minute rule would be strictly enforced.

On account of the absence of S. B. Smith his paper was read by Judge C. L. Fifeid, who before starting stated that the committee on arrangements at the last meeting had wired its greetings to Prof. D. B. Mayne at Ishpeming and received the following letter:

Ishpeming, Mich., Oct. 9.—Twilight Club, Janesville, Wis., Dear Friends:—I was delighted to receive your telegram of greeting last night. It was received to late to answer before your adjournment so I take this means of expressing my joy at the auspicious beginning of your sixth year and my gratitude for having been remembered on this occasion. That the club may continue to prosper and to furnish a real stimulus to its members and the community is my earnest wish.

Very truly yours,

D. D. MAYNE.

Mr. Smith's paper treated the subject generally and showed that much time and thought had been given the subject, and took the position that at the present time all men were inclined to study ways and means whereby they may gratify their desires with the least exertion. The movement was well under way for shorter hours of labor, higher pay and better homes.

Wages and wealth is one of the numerous economic questions confronting the people and one of the many that still remain unsolved. One point that caused serious trouble was the fact that capital was not taxed to its

WORK OF CANAL COMMISSION

Week Given Over to Discussion of Reports.

NICARAGUA ROUTE IN FAVOR.

No Question as to Its Recommendation to President—Faith in the Project Shown by Removal of Shipbuilding Plants.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—For the first time in several months the Isthmian canal commission had a full meeting. Admiral Walker presiding. They heard reports of committees and it is expected that nearly all of the week will be consumed in a discussion of these reports. They comprise investigation of the following subjects: The Nicaragua route, the Panama route, other possible routes, the industrial, commercial and military value of an inter-oceanic canal, and rights, privileges and franchises. When this work is ended the commission will take up the report to the President which will embody the committee reports on these several subjects and the conclusions of the commission which, beyond question, will favor the Nicaragua route. The commission is anxious to get its report into the hands of the President as soon as possible, and therefore it is not unlikely that it will be ready for presentation early next week.

Isthmian Canal Reckoned On.

New York, Nov. 13.—The New York and Southern capitalists who incorporated the Gulf Coast Ship Building and Dry Dock company in the state of Alabama have formulated plans for the establishment of a large shipbuilding plant on the shores of Mobile bay (Ala.) and a drydock and ship repairing plant at New Orleans. In addition to the construction and maintenance of the Mobile and New Orleans plants, the Gulf Coast company has the power, under its charter, to establish and operate wharves for commercial purposes and to construct and operate furnaces, mills, and manufacturing; to charter, buy, and sell and operate ships; to establish, equip and operate coal depots and coaling stations, and to buy and sell coal and other minerals. The securing of a large portion of the ship repairing and docking business at New Orleans is aimed at, and it is pointed out that the construction of an Isthmian canal is reckoned upon as a probability. At the present time the nearest shipbuilding or docking plant to the gulf is at Newport News.

Heart of Each Man Weak. San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 13.—Dr. Clinton, who examined both Jeffries and Ruhlman, says both the big fighters have enlarged or "bicycle" heart. After he had completed his examination of Ruhlman at his quarters he said: "I have examined both Jeffries and Ruhlman and found both of their hearts enlarged. On account of hard training the walls of the heart have thickened and hardened and this has slackened their pulse. In other words, they have what bicycle men call 'bicycle hearts.' All athletes who subject themselves to violent exercise have them."

Buildings Rented for Fair. St. Louis, Nov. 13.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company has secured for use during the fair the 110 acres comprising the grounds of Washington university and the fine buildings of that institution, now nearing completion, just west of Forest Park. The buildings cost $900,000. The administration building of the university will be used as the administration building of the exposition. The other buildings will be used for congresses, education exhibits and athletic sports.

Baptism Is All but Fatal. Thornton, Ind., Nov. 13.—Miss Minnie Codington, a young woman who resides near this city, while being baptized by a minister of the Christian church, in some way slipped from his grasp and was nearly drowned. She was rescued by the bystanders, aided by the minister, and physicians restored her to consciousness after two hours of hard work.

Rob Another Iowa Bank. Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 13.—The Bank of Plymouth, Iowa, was dynamited by robbers last night. The safe vault and building were badly wrecked. Fifteen hundred dollars was secured. The robbers escaped, leaving no clue. This is the seventh bank robbery of the kind occurring in Iowa within a month.

President Zelaya Re-elected. Managua, Nicaragua, Nov. 13.—The Nicaraguan presidential election has passed off peacefully. General Santos J. Zelaya has been re-elected president by a large vote.

Telegraphic Clicks. Mrs. Minnie Madern Flske, in address before a New York club, denounces the theatrical trust, which she styles "an oppressive monopoly and a foe to enterprise."

DYSPEPSIA

Dyspepsia is called the "American Disease," as it is said to attack more residents of this country than any other. Americans live too rapidly—are always too hurried to give proper attention to the selection of food and to take the time to eat it. If you have an especially distressed condition of the stomach after eating, an inability to partake of the lightest meal with perfect freedom from a "crowded feeling" in the stomach immediately afterwards, belching, irritability and a generally disturbed mental condition, you have Dyspepsia.

RECORD BREAKER FOR ODD FELLOWS

Enjoyable Social Held At The East Side Hall Last Evening—Fun Was Fast And Furlous

No one knows how to enjoy life better than an Odd Fellow and when you get a big bunch of them together, with their wives and children present to help keep the ball of fun going, a glimpse or two of the crowd is the most effective medium for the blues known. When the Odd Fellows start out for a good time there is no room for long faces or formal airs and that is the reason why their socials are always such happy successes.

A regular record breaker was held at West Side Odd Fellows' hall last evening, given by Janesville City Lodge No. 90, I. O. O. F. for the members of the lodge and their families. The social was scheduled for the close of the lodge meeting and knowledge of the fun in store led the members of the order to hurry the evening's business out of the way as rapidly as possible. About nine o'clock the doors of the hall were thrown open, card tables appeared as if by magic in the ante room and almost in the twinkling of an eye Jack Tuckwood's orchestra was making music that charmed everyone who knew how to dance and some who didn't onto the floor of the dance hall. Two steps, dances, waltzes and redows with plenty of quadrilles for those who did not care for the graceful measures of the round dance, followed each other in quick succession until the Old Folks' quadrille, played as only Jack Tuckwood can play it, and the more which the merry dancers insisted on, convinced people that they were ready for "Home Sweet Home" waltz which followed it.

This was at one o'clock but before that the dancers had enjoyed an elegant supper prepared by the ladies and served in the dining hall below. Three long tables were spread and they were filled twice before all were served. The tables were laden with all kinds of good things in great abundance and were waited on by Misses Laura Clark, Grace Conroy, Helen McDonald, Maude McDonald, Ione Dopp, Irene Dopp and Luella Scott. The young ladies who assisted the Odd Fellows in entertaining by presiding in the kitchen.

All the arrangements for last evening's social were in the hands of a committee consisting of Harry Robinson, Otto E. Smith and James A. Fathers and the gentlemen were warmly congratulated on its complete and pleasing success.

Two million Americans suffer the torturing pangs of dyspepsia. No need to. Burdock Blood Bitters cures stomach, and it has never yet failed. At any drug store.

Impossible to foresee an accident. Not impossible to be prepared for it. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Monarch over pain.

Don't let the little ones suffer from eczema or any torturing skin diseases. No need for it. Doan's Ointment cures. Can't harm the most delicate skin. At any drug store. 50 cents.

For forty years Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been curing summer complaint, dysentery, diarrhoea, bloody flux, pain in the to do everything claimed for it.

Irish Ground for Apology. Dublin, Nov. 13.—At a meeting of the committee of the Dailymote (County Sligo) branch of the United Irish League letters of apology from persons who had been seen speaking to a car driver who drove for the police and worked for unpopular persons were read. Two other persons apologized verbally for similar offences.

Iowa Dairyman in Session. Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 13.—The annual convention of the Iowa State Dairyman's Association opened with about 400 delegates in attendance. On Wednesday and Thursday there will be fully twice that many. This meeting takes the place of the national convention, and in view of that fact there are prominent creamery men here from the entire country.

Fugitive Negro Is Captured. Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 13.—The police arrested a colored man who they believe is "Bossie" Francis, the negro wanted at Independence, Mo. The police seem to be confident that they have the right man. He fits the description.

May Not Be Longabaugh. Helena, Mont., Nov. 13.—There is a doubt among Montana sheriffs as to the identity of the man under arrest in St. Louis charged with the robbery of the Great Northern express near Wagner last July.

A Strong Woman

Iowa City, Iowa, Aug. 15, 1900
My wife was sick for three years. We tried everything without relief and spent much money. My wife tried Wine of Cardui and four bottles cured her. She took two more bottles, knowing she would have to work hard during the hay harvest. She attended to all her household duties and loaded and unloaded all the hay. This medicine gave her strength. Formerly she was weak and tired and could hardly get about, but since she has been taking Wine of Cardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age. J. O. A. EISENHAFER.

Mrs. Eisenhafer had tried everything during her three years sickness and had spent considerable money. She was weak and could hardly get about for three years before she took

WINE OF CARDUI

Now, after taking the Wine of Cardui, she can work with her husband in the hay field. That is hard work, but it is not as injurious to a woman's health as labor in stores, factories and offices where thousands of girls are closely confined year after year. With the aid of Wine of Cardui a woman can do any reasonable work and enjoy good health. The health that Wine of Cardui brings makes a woman vigorous in body and mind. Freed from those terrible devastating pains a woman grows well and strong naturally. Wine of Cardui regulates the disordered menstruation and cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb and periodical pains in the head and back caused by standing or sitting a long time in the same position. Theodor's Black-Draught puts the bowels, stomach, liver, kidneys and blood in proper shape. Greatly increased strength and endurance is the natural result. Most cases are cured quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and 25 cent packages of Theodor's Black-Draught.

ROUTINE MATTERS BY COUNTY BOARD

REPORTS SHOWING PROGRESS OF SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

Soldiers' Relief Committee Has Paid Out $3,637.75 for the Relief of Needy Soldiers. — L. M. Nelson Was Reappointed Janitor of the Court House Building.

The county board convened this morning at ten o'clock and were called to order by Chairman Bear. The roll call showed all the supervisors present with the exception of H. W. Conley, J. D. Godfrey, L. E. Gettle, E. E. Ransom, K. B. Thoen and L. C. Whitte. Several of the absent members came in later and took their seats.

County Treasurer Miles Rice presented a report in regard to tax certificates which were issued on wrong description. The report was referred to the committee on illegal taxes and tax certificates.

Supervisor Weirick presented a report on the purchase of a booking machine for Judge Sale's office at a cost of $175. The report was adopted.

Supervisor Smith was called to the chair while Chairman Bear of the special committee on the soldiers' monument presented a lengthy report on the soldiers' monument showing what had been done up to the present time. The report was adopted by the unanimous vote of the board.

The building committee presented a report stating that the committee appointed to sell the old jail lot had received no offers and recommended that the old jail be rented if possible.

Supervisor Weirick presented a resolution that as special committee be appointed to confer with the county clerk in regard to the cost of filing and indexing old records in the clerk's office. The chair appointed C. H. Weirick, S. Jones and L. E. Gettle as such committee.

Supervisor McEvoy presented a resolution that the building committee be authorized to purchase all the necessary fixtures for lighting the new hospital and employ suitable help to put them in position. The resolution was adopted.

Supervisor Palmer presented the report of the Soldier's relief committee which was adopted. The report shows that during the year $3,637.75 had been paid out for the relief of the needy soldiers. The balance on hand at the present time is $2,142.72. The sum of $3,600 was appropriated to take care of the soldiers during the coming year.

The clerk cast the ballot of the board for L. M. Nelson as janitor of the court house to succeed himself, also for S. B. Kenyon as superintendent of the poor to succeed himself. Judge Dunwiddie appeared before the board and made a statement in regard to the circuit court room and what was necessary to put it in proper repair.

On motion of Sup. Powers the board adjourned until 1:30 o'clock.

The afternoon session of the board was largely devoted to hearing the reports of committees and county officers. District Attorney Jackson's report of the moneys received by him for fines during the year was adopted. The trustees of the insane asylum and poor farm were instructed to secure $5,000 insurance on the personal property at the farm.

W. J. McIntyre was re-elected as trustee of the insane asylum for the term of three years. The election of a supervisor of assessment was made a special order of business for Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in place of 10 o'clock as before fixed.

LOST POCKETBOOK WITH $30 IN CASH

An Avalon Lady Loses Her Purse. On The Road from Home to Janesville.

Mrs. C. W. Brooks of Alavon, a station on the Janesville & Southeastern railroad, had the misfortune to lose her pocket book containing thirty dollars, while on her way to this city this morning to do some trading. Mrs. Brooks arrived in the city this morning on the 10:35 on the St. Paul road and did not notice the loss of her pocket book until after she had alighted from the train and was on her way down town.

When she discovered her loss, she returned at once to the station and she and Officer Brown at once made a search for the missing book. The train had not yet started for Madison and a search of the car was made but without success. Mrs. Brooks is positive that she had her pocket book on the train as she had her ticket in it and handed the ticket to the conductor on the train. If she left her book on the car seat when she left the train it is probable some person picked it up after she had gone out.

ROCKFORD SINGER HERE TOMORROW

Myron F. Barnes, the well known vocalist of Rockford, will be at the hotel tomorrow from 9:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. and desires to meet all those who are interested in securing the services of an efficient instructor in vocal music. Mr. Barnes expects to come to this city once a week to teach, thus offering an exceptional opportunity to singers. He is too well-known to musical people to need any words of recommendation. He has sung here on several occasions, the last time being with the concert company which opened the People's Lecture course, and his work speaks for itself most eloquently. He has also established his right to be considered one of the best teachers in this section of the country and the people of Janesville have reason to congratulate themselves on his coming. He will doubtless find a large class anxious to take advantage of it.

Miss Ruby Garlick of Beloit and Miss Carrie Spaulding of Brodhead, who appeared on the program at the Musical-Literary society meeting, last evening, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sweeney while in the city.

Arrangements are being made for a sacred concert to be given under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Sweeney at the Presbyterian church, Friday evening, Nov. 22. Some of the finest musical talent in the city will assist on the program.

This morning at the jewelry store of P. C. Cook & Co. a fine assortment of souvenir silver spoons were received. These spoons are handsomely marked. In the bowl is an excellent likeness of the new High school building, while others are of special golf pattern.

When people talk of fancy china we are always favorably mentioned. Just received an elegant new line of fancy decorated china in new shapes and designs. Beautiful line of stems, fancy tobacco jars, out glass and novelties suitable for all kinds of presents, at extremely low prices. We would be glad to see you among our early callers. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Nolan will be gratified to know that their daughter, Vera, passed a bright day at the hospital today, recovering nicely from the effects of a second operation which was performed yesterday. An incision was made at the left knee and a quantity of pus removed.

MISS GRACE KIRK WAS THE HOSTESS

Entertained a Company of Her Friends at Her Home on Glen Street Last Evening.

Miss Grace Kirk was the hostess at quite a surprise party, last evening, when she entertained a company of her young lady friends at her home, 364 Glen street, and created considerable of a sensation by the announcement that she is soon to leave Janesville for a new home near Sacramento, Cal. The announcement of her engagement to Frank Tupper, of Sacramento, was made last evening.

About thirty of Miss Kirk's lady friends responded to invitations to spend the evening at her home, although the guests were all unconscious of the object of the gathering. The first part of the evening was devoted happily to games, a guessing contest in which the answers were names of trees, providing considerable amusement. Miss Margaret Pateron proved most proficient and was declared the prize winner.

Just before the serving of the dainty refreshments, Mrs. J. T. Henderson, to whom the secret had been entrusted, shared its news with the other members of the company, making the announcement of Miss Kirk's engagement very happily. The news was a complete surprise to the guests but congratulations were showered thick and fast on the happy prospective bride. There was no other topic of conversation for the balance of the evening.

Mr. Tupper, Miss Kirk's betrothed, arrived in the city last night and the marriage is to be celebrated in the very near future.

His home is on a ranch near Sacramento and he and Miss Kirk have known each other for several years.

PUMPKIN PIES WILL BE HIGHER

Yellow Thanksgiving Fruit is a Short Crop—There is Also a Corner on the Market.

The man who has pumpkins on his place this year does not have to go to the Kilnlike for gold. He is selling yellow fruit in strawberry boxes, figuratively speaking, and naming his own price for them. He has the trade in table delicacies at his feet.

The way of it is this: The time for starting the crop this season was in the height of the drought. Farmers who usually have acres of them, making them a staple for the fall feed or for the crop. They did not even get their seed back. One farmer near Janesville planted his corn field, also a new patch just turned over on his slough. On the 15th he got a few pumpkins. The first offer he made for their sale was taken up and he never saw his pumpkins again. The dealer who got them has not had another chance. Two other growers met with the accident of having a few pumpkins in this vicinity, and were relieved of them by the first dealer to whom they exhibited their good fortune. A few years ago turkeys were so high that a couple would buy a hog, and a hog was worth almost as much as a cow. This year a bushel of corn will nearly buy a bushel of wheat and a pumpkin or two are worth about as much as either one.

A dealer in Chicago has hit upon the plan for cornering the pumpkin crop. He has a soft thing. He will be able to retire from business when the season is over.

Scarcely any people have tasted the luxury of a pumpkin pie this year, and not many have even seen the fruit. The New England idea of Thanksgiving will have something missing. By another year people will have a higher conception of the yellow cucurbita pepo.

WAS GOOD SEASON FOR SMALL FRUITS

The Winter Season Will Probably Be Uneventful, With Prices Ruling Stiff and Higher.

The season for small fruits and produce is now practically closed for the year 1901. This has been one of the most remarkable years in this market in the history of the commission man, and it might be added, in that of the consumer.

Not only has the quantity of the stuff handled this year been larger than in previous years, but the values have been far ahead of anything on record. Owing to the higher prices the money changing hands in the transactions is naturally more than usual.

Coming to quality of the product handled, it must be said that it has been exceptionally good in many lines. For instance, peaches, which were at first thought to be very scarce turned out to be very good. The number was not so large as last year, but the number of packages was greater, because the peaches exceeded those of other years in size.

All through the season prices have been steady with but few exceptions. The tendency has been to advance and except in the latter part of the season there was no slaughter of prices to get rid of goods.

There were no famines as regards the merchant's ability to fill orders for the trade and consumers.

Nothing unusual is expected of the produce market this winter. There are many of the small fruits in the market today, but they are going out and it will only be a day or two before they are gone.

Good buckwheat cakes form half the breakfast these cool mornings. We keep all the leading brands of buckwheat. O. D. Bates.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE

F. W. Warner was in the city yesterday from Beloit.

W. A. Jackson spent the day in Chicago on business. N. L. Bates and wife, of Hazelton, Iowa, are guests of C. D. Bates.

Alderman H. S. Gilkey is home from a business trip to his lumber mills in the northern part of the state.

George R. Thompson of Milwaukee, traveling passenger agent for the Pennsylvania lines, was in the city this morning.

City Attorney Burpee went to Madison this morning to look up some of the records in the Collins case in the supreme court.

T. J. Zeigler arrived in the city from Chicago last night and will spend a few days looking after his business interests in this city.

A. J. Garrison, manager of the Nelson house of Rockford, and George Key, one of the leading horse dealers of that city were here yesterday. Mr. Key was in search of horses and Mr. Garrison was looking for potatoes.

MEMORIAL FUND IS GROWING FAST

The subscription list for the McKinley memorial fund, which has been placed on the counter at the Rock county bank, is daily receiving new names and the fund is growing rapidly. The lists at the other banks, at the newspaper offices, hotels and other public places are meeting with similar success and their quiet appeal is being responded to liberally. At the meeting of the city on Friday further plans for the canvassing of the city will be discussed and adopted.

BEYOND LIFE'S CARES.

John B. Moon Dead

John B. Moon, one of the pioneers of this city and for many years a resident here, died suddenly this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Story in Chicago. The sad news was received by his daughter, Miss Fanny Moon, 8 Milton avenue, but the telegram gave no particulars beyond the fact of Mr. Moon's sudden death and the announcement that he funeral would be held in Chicago Friday morning and the remains would be brought to Janesville for interment. Mr. Moon was about seventy-eight years of age and is well known in the city especially by the older residents to whom the news of his death will be a painful surprise.

There was a happy wedding party assembled at the home of William J. Lennartz, 308 S. Franklin street, last evening, the occasion for the gathering being the marriage of Mr. Lennartz and Mrs. Matilda Smith.

The happy event took place at 7 o'clock, the ceremony which made them man and wife being performed by the Rev. C. J. Koerner, pastor of St. Paul's German Lutheran church. The exchange of marriage vows was witnessed by about forty relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony and congratulations, an elegant wedding supper was served. The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers.

Invitation for Col. Britton

Col. W. B. Britton has received an invitation to accompany the Vicksburg Park commission to Vicksburg on November 19th to assist in locating the position of the 8th Wisconsin regiment, which was under his command at the time of the charge on the rebel works. The battle was fought on May 22, 1863. Col. Britton is thinking seriously of accepting the invitation and visiting the scene of one of the hardest fought battles the regiment took part in. Col. Britton remembers perfectly the position of the regiment in the fight. His knowledge of the battle will be of great knowledge to the commission.

Rev. Father Goebel conducted the funeral services of Mrs. Catherine Kelly from St. Mary's church at 9:30 yesterday morning. The interment was at Mount Olivet and the bearers were William Kelly, John Heffernan, John Riley, John Kemmett, Patrick McKeligue, Thomas McKeligue.

CHANCE TO HEAR A GRAND CONCERT

Victor Herbert and His Pittsburg Orchestra May Be Secured for Dec. 11 or 12.

People who enjoy fine orchestral music are to be given a chance to do something towards securing a concert such as has never been heard in this city. Victor Herbert and his famous Pittsburg orchestra can be secured for December 11 or 12 of the month desiring their coming is strong enough to pledge 200 tickets at $1 each. The subscription list has been left at the People's Drug store and those who appreciate art in music are urged to subscribe for seats at once.

This city came near losing the opportunity to secure this concert but Manager P. L. Myers interested himself and secured important concessions from the manager. Of course the orchestra does not expect to play to an audience of only 200 people but if that number will show their interest by pledging themselves to buy seats, the management will deem it worth while to take the balance of responsibility of arousing interest in the concert.

This is by far the greatest opportunity that has ever come to Janesville people and should not be permitted to fall through because of negligence. People who heard the Pittsburg orchestra at Buffalo are enthusiastic in its praises and guarantee the city a concert which will be a great treat. Victor Herbert chooses his programs to please all people and his concerts are popular as well as highly artistic. People who are interested in his coming should see that their names are on the list at once.

HUNTING DUCKS IN BADGER LAKES: RISKS OF THE MARKET GUNNERS

What It Means To Be Caught in a Sink Box--Instinctive Skill Reached by Men Who Kill Ducks But Don't Eat Them.

There is no harder work than shooting ducks on the Wisconsin lakes, says the New York Sun, and under such circumstances there is not much work that is more dangerous. The peril of it comes from stormy water, frail blinds, cranky boats, and the excellent chance afforded to catch pneumonia.

The old Wisconsin duck hunter is almost always a strong man, but he is strong because nature made him so. Otherwise he would be dead. The rigor of the sport is proved by the fact that, with the exception of the persons who kill ducks to sell them, it is a rare thing to find a man of more than forty who is willing to endure the discomforts of shooting from a blind in the early western winter merely for the fun of it.

The steady ducker has one test which he applies to the weather. If it is cold enough to freeze the water as it splashes from the waves and falls on the decoys, cold enough to freeze it so rapidly that in a little while the heads of the wooden birds become solid chunks of ice, making them top heavy and turning them belly up, a reasonable amount of sport may be expected in blind shooting. If the decoys ride out an hour without turning from the weight of upper ice, the only thing to do is to sit still, smoke when a fellow feels like it, and pray for an occasional shot.

Professional hunters are not long lived. They have money all through the summer and they lead lives of excess. In the winter they are subjected to such exposure and perform such unhealthful work that decay begins long before it should. They die usually about fifty, when they die natural deaths. Many of them are drowned, and accidents arising from handling guns with benumbed fingers are many.

They do their own cooking and live on the plainest of food, generally bacon, bread and coffee, with an occasional can of tomatoes and a semi-occasional hunk of beef. They slaughter habitually the finest food in the world, but it is not for their teeth. A market hunter would as soon think of eating a two-dollar bill as of eating a pair of canvasbacks. Indeed, the canvasbacks are so much money to him.

Sometimes, when there is a camp of gentlemen sportsmen within reach, they are visited by market hunters who come over to find out how much of their game is being slain by the strangers and when the strangers are going to get out and leave the birds to their legitimate owners.

At such times it is at once a funny and a pathetic thing to see the market hunters stand around ill at ease, and look, with a kind of fascinated horror, at men calmly devouring redheads, mallards, jacksnips and teal. It is exactly the feeling which comes over a knot of sensible people when a vain-glorious spendthrift lights a ten cent cigar with a five-dollar treasury note.

Being bidden to the feast, however, they fall to with a speed and endurance discounting the best efforts of any man reared in the city. It is probably the only game they have tasted in the season—and most certainly all they will taste—and they rise to the occasion.

They handle ducks so constantly that they smell ducky and there are feathers in their pockets and inside of their rubber boots, but the taste of duck broiled on live wood coals is almost as foreign to them as to a horse. So far as knowledge extends, the only market shooters in the world who will put canvasbacks into their own stomachs when the birds are worth $4 a pair in New York are the folks who live on Barnegat Bay. They are a long-legged, knobby-kneed, hard-featured, independent set of fishers and hunters, and generally they do not care whether school keeps or not.

erally they do not care whether school keeps or not.

In all Wisconsin lakes of the small, or class the water is comparatively shallow. Along the banks wild rice grows in season and fruits and falls down before the ice comes. Rushes, however, and flags—locally called sword-grass—stand up nearly all of the winter and make excellent cover. There is a clause in the Wisconsin game law which forbids the erection of an artificial blind away from the shore. It is also illegal to shoot ducks before sunrise or after sunset, but this is by the way. The restriction concerning the erection of artificial blinds has had the effect partly to do away with the old tank blinds or sink boxes, which were placed far out in the lake, from which enormous execution was done. Many men are forced, consequently, to depend upon the rushes for concealment.

There is nothing in the law to prevent the hiding of a boat in the tangle. This is done by driving it as far in as it can be made to go and then bending down the rushes over it. These boats are narrow, do not show more than six inches of freeboard and are painted a dull dun mixed with green.

They blend admirably with the surrounding vegetation. As an occasional precaution against discovery it is customary to break off a quantity of rushes and stick them on the sides of the boat, where they stand up straight. Also the men in the boat will place bunches of rushes in their hand bands.

It is impossible for the human eye to distinguish them at 300 yards, and a rapidly moving duck is not apt to see them at all, provided that they keep perfectly still, which the market hunter is certain to do. The slightest motion is fatal to concealment, as a duck will catch the movement of a hand sometimes half a mile away when its eye has been unable to separate the rigid body from the surroundings.

It is only city people who cannot remain motionless when a band of mallards is sweeping into the decoys. These people must turn their heads in order to observe the progress of the birds, and then they observe a rapidly departing progress.

Men who shoot for a living develop a singular skill in judging the distance of birds by the sound of their wings. They do not stir a muscle nor blink an eyelash until their eyes tell them that the visitors are within gunshot. Then they become very much alive. The gun comes up to the shoulder instinctively and instinctively the muzzle points in the right direction. The next instant there is a flash, followed by a dull boom and resultant tiny splashes in the water.

The market hunter will tell the inquirer that in shooting he judges the nearness of the birds, estimates their speed, calculates the force of the wind, makes allowance for the shot drift and so arrives at a just conclusion as to the proper distance to lead the game, or to hold over it, or under it. The fact is he does nothing of the kind.

The entire business, so far as the aiming and firing are concerned, is transacted in less than a second, and in that time no human brain works fast enough to do a lot of complicated measuring and figuring, while also directing the trigger finger. The shooting of the market hunter, and of all other trained field shots, is as mechanical as the formation of letters with a pen.

The gun goes to the shoulder pointed correctly and the forefinger crooks at the right instant as a matter of habit, and not as a matter of thought. This requires years of steady, intelligent practice, and it costs more money than to learn to play a game of billiards like Slosson's, unless a man happens to be born a shot, which happens once in 700,000 times.

BOERS HAVE 17,000 IN FIELD.

Veldt Cornet Declares That They Never Will Be Vanquished.

Brussels, Nov. 13.—A Boer veldt cornet, who is at present in Brussels, charged with some mysterious mission, declares that there are still 17,000 Boers on the warpath, and that great quantities of ammunition are hidden near Zoutspanberg and in the southern part of Bechuanaland, a district unhealthy for Europeans and too large to be hemmed in by the British. The cornet also asserts that the British will never be able to vanquish the Boers, but will be compelled to give up South Africa, as they were forced to relinquish the United States.

Kitchener Moves on De Wet.

London, Nov. 13.—Lord Kitchener, in a dispatch from Pretoria, presents his weekly report and incidentally locates Gen. De Wet in the northeastern part of the Orange River colony. He says the Boers have recently been collecting under his leadership and that the British are now moving to disperse them. Lord Kitchener gives the Boer casualties since Nov. 4 as sixty-three killed, 105 wounded, 104 captured and forty-five surrendered.

Divorce Mills Are Gliding.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Grace Snell-Coffin-Walker-Coffin, who married her first husband for the third time only a couple of weeks ago, has secured her third divorce from him. The ink on marriage certificate No. 2 had scarcely time to dry before decree of divorce No. 3 was laid on top of it. Elizabeth Stuart Sturgis, actress, wants to be divorced from her husband, a real estate dealer, because he held her head under a faucet, and threw cold water on her when she was in bed. Mrs. Sophonisba Harrison Eastman, sister of the mayor of this thriving burg, has been granted a decree from her husband, the newspaper man. George Horton, who wrote about the tempting of Father Anthony, whose services in Greece converted him to the belief that all skies were of Mediterranean blue, has asked for a divorce from his wife for certain reasons, and has sued a board of trade man for $100,000 damages.

Macley to Revise His Book.

New York, Nov. 13.—Edgar Stanton Macley, the author of "A History of the United States Navy," who is still working as a clerk in the Brooklyn navy yard, is preparing to make changes in his history if Rear Admiral Schley is exonerated. He said in an interview: "I am awaiting the decision of the court before putting out the revised edition of the history. If the court exonerates Admiral Schley and clears him of discredit I will at once cut out that portion of the third volume which is detrimental to him."

To Fight the Biscuit Trust.

Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—Fifty independent concerns have completed an organization in opposition to the National Biscuit Company under the name of the Biscuit and Cracker Manufacturers' Association of the United States. H. B. Grubbs of St. Louis was elected president, J. W. Callahan of New York, secretary, and George A. Ward of Pittsburgh, treasurer. Among the vice presidents is Harry Fox of Chicago.

Explosion Kills Three.

Bluefield, W. Va., Nov. 13.—Thomas Sykes, Sam Davis and William Woodson met horrible deaths in the coal field. They were engaged in opening a keg of powder when a spark fell from a miner's lamp worn by one of the trio, into the powder, igniting it and causing an explosion which was heard for miles. The three men were blown through the shack and were literally torn to pieces.

Battle with Safe-Robbers.

Rikhart, Ind., Nov. 13.—The safe in the Bristol postoffice was blown open by burglars and two residents were shot and wounded in an encounter with the robbers. They were Mrs. C. E. Bicket and Ray Shauer. Neither was hurt seriously. The thieves exploded ten charges of dynamite before the safe was opened. They secured $1,000 in bills and $500 in stamps.

Two Sentenced to Die.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 13.—The Supreme court has sentenced Albert Garth to be hanged in Kansas City and Joshua L. Craft to be hanged in Jefferson City, both on Dec. 20, next. Garth is a negro, who killed Minnie Woods. Craft is a convict in the Missouri penitentiary, who escaped a few years ago and shot to death Herman Spieker, who attempted to arrest him.

Kentucky Bank Robbed.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 13.—A special to the Banner says robbers blew open the vault of the bank at Trenton, Ky., with nitroglycerin at 1 o'clock a. m. and stole a postoffice deposit box containing about $300. The safe was forced, charged and several holes were exploded, but the doors could not be forced. The robbers made their escape on a handcar.

New Revolt Against Castro.

Port of Spain, Trinidad, Nov. 13.—General Juan Petrie has raised another revolt against President Castro's government. The uprising is at Carabobo. General Petrie has been joined by several distinguished Venezuelans.

Henry Clay McDowell Named.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Henry Clay McDowell has been selected to succeed Judge John Paul as United States District Judge of the western district of Virginia. He is from Wise county and a great grandson of Henry Clay.

Professor Falls to Death.

New York, Nov. 13.—Prof. Richard Mayo-Smith, who filled the chair of political economy in Columbia university, was killed last night by falling to the pavement from a fourth-story window of his home in West 27th street. After an investigation by the police it is believed his death was accidental.

New Linotype Record.

Des Moines, Nov. 13.—Dan Tew, a Mergenthaler Linotype machine operator in the Capital office, broke the world's record for speed. He set 3,344 lines of nonpareil in eight hours, newspaper measure, equal to 86,944 ems. Estimating two and one-half touches per em, he touched the keyboard 217,380 times.

Victim Thrown in Her Face.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 13.—Mrs. George Wadley of Fort Dodge, Iowa, was badly burned in the face by vitriol thrown by a woman known as Julia Moorehouse. The victim raised her arm just as the fluid was thrown and the acid saved her sight. She will, however, be permanently disfigured.

Death of Lady Jane Carew.

London, Nov. 13.—Lady Catherine Jane Carew, grandmother of the present Baron Carew, is dead at Woodstown, Waterford, aged 104. She was a guest at the famous Brussels ball on the eve of the battle of Waterloo, and was a noted beauty at the court of Louis Philippe.

ECZEMA'S ITOH IS TORTURE.

Eczeema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and inflammation; little pustular eruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is hard, dry and fissured. Eczeema in any form is a tormenting, stubborn disease, and the itching and burning at times are almost unbearable; the acid burning humor seems to ooze out and set the skin on fire. Salves, washes and other external applications do any real good, for as long as the poison remains in the blood it will keep the skin irritated.

BAD FORM OF TETTER.

"For three years I had Tetters on my hands, which caused them to swell to twice their natural size. Part of the time the disease was in the form of running sores, very painful, and causing me much discomfort. Four doctors said the Tetters had progressed too far to be cured, and that I could do nothing for me. I took only three bottles of S. S. S. and was completely cured. This was fifteen years ago, and I have never since seen any sign of my old trouble."—Mrs. L. B. JACKSON, 114 McGee St., Kansas City, Mo.

S. S. S. neutralizes this acid poison, cools the blood and restores it to a healthy, natural state, and the rough, unhealthy skin becomes soft, smooth and clear.

SSS cures Tetters, Erysipelas, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum and all skin diseases due to a poisoned condition of the blood. Send for our book and write us about your case. Our physicians have made these diseases a life study, and can help you by their advice; we make no charge for this service. All correspondence is conducted in strictest confidence.

Yacht Club House Burns.

Erie, Pa., Nov. 13.—The Erie Yacht clubhouse, one of the finest structures of its kind on the chain of lakes, was burned. The sleeping inmates had to make their escape clad in nightgowns over a piazza roof. The loss is about $30,000.

CONVICTS TAKEN IN FIGHT

Three Leavenworth Mutineers Recaptured After Battle.

MORE SAID TO BE CAUGHT.

Men Who Trapped Topeka Sheriff Overpowered When Ammunition Is Exhausted—One of Them Is Wounded, but Is Able to Talk.

Leavenworth, Kas., Nov. 13.—Captain Trelford, who was captured by the mutineers in the federal prison here at the time of the uprising, has just led a party of prison guards in a battle with escaped convicts at Bazar, seven miles from Cottonwood Falls, Kas., and captured three of them, wounding one. A constable at Metz, Mo., telegraphed to the federal penitentiary in the evening that the citizens of that place had captured and were holding three strange men, supposed to be escaped convicts, and, from the descriptions furnished, the prison authorities believe the men held are mutineers. If they prove to be escaping prisoners only six of the twenty-six mutineers are now at liberty.

Guards Battle with Convicts.
The men captured by Captain Trelford and his men are Gilbert Mullins, a white; Sol Southerland, an Indian; and Fred Robinson, a mulatto. The guards with Captain Trelford got in ahead of the fleeing convicts, and when the fugitives refused to surrender the guards opened fire. There was a running battle, the convicts trying to reach the woods. Southerland, who was shot during the battle at the prison, was stopped by a bullet, but not fatally hurt. The others reached the woods, where they were surrounded. A battle ensued and hundreds of shots were fired. Finally the convicts ran out of ammunition and the guards charged and captured them. They were almost exhausted from running, and were taken to jail at Bazar. Captain Trelford is now bringing them back to the prison.

Capture Men Who Caught Sheriff.
Mullins and Southerland are the two convicts who captured Sheriff Cook on Sunday and held him prisoner in a farmhouse, with the farmer and his wife, then marched through the swarm of Topeka police to freedom, using the sheriff and the farmer's wife as shields.

Wounded Convict Lined.
Lawrence Lewis, the convict shot at Quenemo, was brought in during the afternoon. Lewis is able to talk. He told the officers escorting him that he left the body of convicts after the first night. He traveled during the day, following the railroad track, walking around towns. Lewis says he lived on apples. People gathered around Lewis at every station; many came up and expressed sympathy for him; Lewis was presented with boxes of candy and two bouquets. At one place a bridal party was at the station, ready to start on the wedding trip. The bride took flowers from her bouquet, stepped up to the cot, and presented the flowers to Lewis.

"Do you think the warden will punish me severely?" he asked. "I don't think they ought to be hard on a man just because he wanted to be free."

Four Girls and a Man Hurt.
Philadelphia, Nov. 13.—A gas cylinder on the first floor of the three-story building of the Liberty Chemical company, Fifteenth street, near Cumberland street, exploded, seriously injuring four girls and a man. Their names are: Miss A. M. Grebe, Miss Anna Grebe, Miss Kate Draxler, Miss Stella Mack, Edward Weyandt. The girls were at work on the second floor and jumped to save their lives. Weyandt was the engineer and was badly hurt by the force of the explosion. The company manufactures chemicals for medical use. The building was wrecked and the loss is estimated at $50,000.

One More Boat from Nome.
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 13.—The steam schooner Arctic, Captain Erickson, arrived shortly before midnight from Nome with 118 passengers and $250,000 in gold. She was the last boat but one to leave the northern port, and brought down many prominent business men. She reports meeting the Ralph D. Long at Dutch harbor, short of provisions and water. It is said that her sixty passengers had suffered many privations before reaching port. The Long was expected to follow the Arctic to Seattle the next day.

Short $1,000; Takes Poisons.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—William Simpson, a salesman for Zinsmeister Bros., wholesale grocers, committed suicide in the law-office of Kohn, Baldr & Spindle here by taking a draught of Carbolic acid when confronted with a shortage of $1,000. His employer and his employer's lawyer were standing near him at the time and Zinsmeister was telephoning to New Albany, where Simpson lived, investigating a claim that two men whom Simpson named would settle his shortage. He died in fifteen minutes.

Hunters Reported Killed.
Ashland, Wis., Nov. 13.—Unconfirmed reports say that two men hunting deer in Bayfield and Douglas counties were killed by stray bullets. One, it is said, was killed near Mason, in Bayfield county, and the other near Superior Junction, in Douglas county. There are more than 3,500 hunters in the woods of Ashland county, and it is feared that many casualties will result.

PERIL FROM FOREST FIRES.

Flames Within Half Mile of Town and Sweeping Nearer.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 13.—According to dispatches received here forest fires are raging in the vicinity of Red Bud and Alto Pass, Ill.; Popular Bluff, Mo., and Sedgwick, Ark. North of the first-named place, the woods along the Black creek and Richland creek bottoms are on fire, and the farmers are fighting hard to save their homes.

Farm property in the vicinity of Alto Pass, Ill., is in great danger from forest fires, which are raging in the timber west and south of here. Dense smoke envelopes the whole territory. The townspeople turned out last night in response to the country people's call for help and are strenuously fighting the encroaching flames.

The fire is within half a mile of town and coming before a terrific gale. Much fencing and several young fruit orchards have already been destroyed. Forest fires have broken out south of Poplar Bluff, Mo. The sky is covered with dense volumes of smoke and great damage to property is feared. Hunters who have been driven in on account of the intense heat and smoke report deer, wolves and other game fleeing north to escape the fire.

A telegram from Sedgwick, Ark., stated that the plant of the Culver Lumber and Manufacturing Company was burning, with several thousand feet of lumber.

Rescued from Burning Home.
Appleton, Wis., Nov. 13.—Conductor Henry Stark of the Appleton and Neenah interurban line saved a family from being burned to death while on his run. While passing through Menasha, Stark saw flames bursting from a small frame house. Stopping the car he rushed to the place and tried to awaken the inmates by pounding on the door. This proving of no avail, he threw several stones through the windows, which aroused the sleepers, who were partially overcome by the smoke. A boy first staggered to the door, and with his assistance Stark succeeded in saving the parents and sister of the boy, who, but for his prompt action, would have died in the burning building.

Mrs. Winklow's Soothing Syrup has been used for a lifetime while teaching. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colds, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by druggists throughout the whole world.

Mining Town Is Wiped Out.
Cumberland, Md., Nov. 13.—The mining town of Thomas, W. Va., on the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh railway, was almost wiped out by fire which started under Gerberger's hotel. The town was without fire protection and the frame houses fell easy prey to the flames. Twenty business houses and seventy dwellings were consumed.

Fatal Fire in Cleveland.
Cleveland, O., Nov. 13.—Fire destroyed a big office building in Cleveland, imperiling the lives of 100 occupants, many of whom jumped into life nets or escaped by telephone wires. One woman was killed and six persons were injured. Property loss is $500,000.

Burns Prove Fatal to Woman.
Chicago, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Etta Shoke, 20 years old, died at St. Elizabeth's hospital from burns received by a gasoline explosion in the rear of her husband's drug store. The husband, who was burned also, is being cared for at the same hospital.

Big Mining Suit on Again.
Council Bluffs, Nov. 13.—The trial of the Doyle-Burns mining suit, involving title to mining property in Colorado worth $1,000,000, has been begun again before Judge Macey in the District Court. United States Senator Patterson, leading counsel for Burns; C. J. Hughes, Jr., Scott Ashton and ex-Gov. Thomas, with several other Colorado attorneys and fifty witnesses, arrived early in the day.

"SOUP MAKES THE SOLDIER."

The great Emperor understood that primarily the soldier is a stomach. Primarily every man is a stomach. The whole body and brain are dependent for health and life upon the orderliness and completeness of the processes which go on in the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition.

People who have been treated for disease of head, heart, lungs, liver, nerves or blood have often been treated in vain, until they began the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When this medicine had healed the stomach and cleansed the blood, the other diseases disappeared.

"Six years ago last August I was attacked with malarial fever," writes Mr. Daniel A. Carter, of York, Rowan Co., N. C. "My spleen became enlarged, and I was in bed on and off for four years. I went to the doctors and some of them said I had dyspepsia, others said I had liver trouble. The last doctor I had called it chronic liver and stomach disease. So I paid out money and nothing did me any good. Two years ago I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and used ten bottles, and now I can do as big a day's work as any man."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a boon to bilious people. They cure.

CHAPLAIN'S SUIT WENT UP IN SMOKE

Rev. Henry Faville, of La Crosse and well-known in this city, his former home is officiating as chaplain of Beloit college this week and he is departing from the usual course by appearing in an ordinary business suit. This is not because Rev. Faville has no sense of the fitness of things nor because he wants to create a mild sensation but because he is the victim of circumstances.

The story is rather an amusing one to Rev. Faville's friends though it has a serious side which appeals quite strongly to him. On his way to Beloit he stopped at Lake Mills to visit his old home, which is on a farm near the city. He left his valise, containing his best suit of clothes, and other articles of value at the hotel and that night the hotel and all of its contents burned. Mr. Faville's valise with the rest. Among the things destroyed was a handsome table cover. Mrs. Faville had made for her son who is attending Beloit college. The clothes which Rev. Faville expected to wear while attending to his duties as chaplain went up in smoke and that is why he wears a business suit while conducting worship.

MOVEMENT BY FRENCH WOMEN.

Suffragists intend to eliminate the title of "Mademoiselle."

Paris, Nov. 13.—The woman suffragists of Paris intend to wipe out the nominal distinction between married and unmarried women. They propose to abolish the term "mademoiselle" and to apply "madame" to all women alike, even to infants of the female sex, just as "monsieur" is now used in addressing baby boys. The Suffrage society has issued a proclamation to this effect calling upon all true believers to eschew the use of the diminutive title and to use only "madame" when speaking of or to persons of the feminine gender.

Mme. Auclert, president of the society, calls attention to the habit of Mme. Clemence Royer, Darwin's translator, of refusing to open all letters addressed with the diminutive prefix to her name. Unmarried and married men, she says, are alike called "monsieur," and there is no reason why any stigma of inferiority should attach to the name of woman.

SAY LE CLAIRE WAS MURDERED

Claim That Hurley Theater Was Fired to Conceal Crime

Wausau, Wis., Nov. 13.—Joseph and James Nolson, uncles of Thomas Le Claire, who was burned to death in the recent theater fire at Hurley, have just returned from that place, and aser their nephew was murdered and the building fired to conceal the crime. They claim they discovered that on the evening of the fire Thomas Le Claire had a fight over a variety actress, to whom he had been paying attention. Le Claire, they say, was on the same floor as those who were saved, but no one was found who had seen him during the fire. The story will be investigated, and if sufficient evidence can be obtained arrests will follow.

Dollar Worth Forty-Five.

Colon, Colombia, Nov. 13.—Arrivals from the interior of Colombia bring the news that the exchange of paper money has advanced to the highest point yet reached. A United States dollar is actually worth $45 in national currency in Bogota and $48 in department money. Merchants of Barranquilla believe that the value of the paper money will depreciate further and are holding as little as possible. They are converting all the paper money they get into coffee and other merchandise.

Declines Financial Aid.

New York, Nov. 13.—When financial assistance was indirectly offered to General E. L. Mollneux for the conduct of the second trial of his son, Roland B. Mollneux, at a meeting of his comrades in the Veteran Association of the One Hundred and Fifty-ninth New York Volunteers last night in the Brooklyn Borough Hall, he responded that he appreciated the kindly feelings of his comrades but could not accept their material aid.

ALLEN & PALMER

TO A. M. VALENTINE—Janesville—Rock County—Wisconsin.
You are notified that the undersigned, Fred Hessebauer, of the city of Janesville, County of Rock and State of Wisconsin, on the 5th day of December, 1900, while on the premises owned and occupied by you and described as lot number one (1), in block number twenty-six (26) of the original plat of the village (now city) of Janesville, at your invitation, received and suffered severe personal injuries, to wit: a rupture or hernia on the left side, also such injuries as to cause atrophy or shrinking of the muscles on the left side of the back and other manifestations of disease, and other injuries.
That such injuries were received by the breaking through and falling into a cesspool or catch basin situated on the west side of the dwelling house on said premises, the cover to which catch basin or cesspool was so negligently constructed and was, through your fault and negligence, in such want of repair and so decayed as to render the same unsafe, unsound and dangerous.
That by reason of the said injuries the undersigned has suffered great pain in body and mind and has been disabled from attending to his business, suffering pecuniary loss thereby, and has incurred expense for medical treatment to his damage, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00), and that as the said injuries were caused by your negligence as aforesaid, satisfaction thereof is claimed of you.—Dated October 21, 1901.

JANESVILLE PROMINENT AS A TRADING POINT.

Business Interests Gives It Wide Reputation.

Some Facts About Its Various Business Institutions.

-As an ideal spot to make the home Janesville has a reputation, not only in Wisconsin, but in a number of surrounding states. Its natural advantages are many, both for the resident and the business house. A great factor in the prestige Janesville enjoys over other cities is the advantage offered as a trading point. Located as it is in the center of Rock county, it draws the country trade and its shipping facilities in all directions are far above the average. Its business concerns have contributed largely to the reputation the city has gained as a good trading point. But few cities in the northwest are so well represented in every line, both wholesale and retail. In comparison with its population, its industries are on such solid foundation and of such a nature that hard times and panics do not affect them to any great extent. The Gazette has secured the data from a number of prominent business concerns which will be interesting and profitable reading.

J. McKONE.

Supt. Metropolitan Life of New York.
The individual who attains distinction in the insurance world in our day, is no longer the child of fortune or the heir to opportunity. He is and must be the pains taking and diligent worker, who seeks his elementary education in the ranks where the duty of field work supplies that practical knowledge which is so essential to success. Among the local insurance men who have reason to be proud of his record in this respect is Mr. J. McKone, local superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., of New York. Mr. McKone has been located here for several years, and for the past two years has acted as local superintendent of the above company. Before settling here he was assistant superintendent at Green Bay and his progress has been always upward and steadily unbroken. His office is one of the busiest of this section, employing five assistants and nineteen agents who are constantly at work among the people of this and surrounding counties, and their success is largely due to the capable management and wise foresight of their superintendent. Mr. McKone possesses all of the qualities of the successful insurance man; he combines affability with perseverance, and industry with systematic effort, and he is generally esteemed for the great success which he has achieved.

VALENTINE'S SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY.

Richard Valentine, President and Treasurer; Arthur M. Valentine, Vice-President and Secretary.
The above institution is widely known throughout many states of the union, where its graduates have in many instances acquired distinction and high places with the great railroad systems of the country. There is no doubt of the advantages to be derived from a systematic course in a school of telegraphy such as the above, for every facility that experience can devise, and every advantage in the way of instruments that capital can supply, is here to be found. The superiority of this method of learning telegraphy over the haphazard method of learning by acting as errand boy in an office, is not to be questioned. Under the latter conditions the boy must pick up as best he can, and at odd moments, all information which he acquires, while in the school of telegraphy competent instructors devote their entire attention to teaching the pupils all the details of the business. Valentine's School of Telegraphy was established twenty-nine years ago by Mr. Richard Valentine and his brother, Arthur M. Valentine, and it is the largest school of its kind in the country. Both of these gentlemen were previously telegraph operators of note, and their long years of study of the requirements of their school have made them masters of the situation. Their school possesses every advantage that could possibly be secured and they are the only telegraph school in the United States that is connected in any way with railway companies, among these being the Chicago & Northwestern, Chicago Great Western, Marinette, Tomahawk & Western, Green Bay & Western, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Chicago, Topeka & Santa Fe, Chicago & Eastern Illinois, Great Northern, as well as the Western Union Telegraph Company, with all of which roads they secure positions for pupils who graduate from their school. Messrs. Valentine are business men of ability and they take a personal interest in the work of every pupil and lose no opportunity to see that pupils secure a position after graduating. The advantages of a knowledge of telegraphy as learned in this school, to the young who superintends the packing in the orchard, and their large cold storage house for apples, having a capacity of 2,500 barrels is now being filled.

DAVE BROWN.

Hay, Feed and Grain.
An industry which does much in adding to the satisfaction of the public is that of the hay, feed and grain business. When a farmer or horse owner must buy hay or feed of any kind he wants to know where to get it of good quality and delivered promptly. These can be secured of Dave Brown at No. 7 Court Street, who has been operating in this business for the past ten years and who also deals extensively in grain. Mr. Brown is a business man of integrity and reliability and his word may be depended upon at all times. He has conducted his business in a way to win the approval of all and is prepared to offer the very best of service in the matter of supplying hay, feed and grain, while his prices are moderate and his terms most reasonable.

KYRLE A. MORRIS.

Architect.
The handsome residences, churches and buildings of our day to which our people more willingly than formerly gave their material and moral support indicate the trend of the time from a purely educational standpoint. With this development of popular taste the field of the architect broadens, his opportunities multiply and his services are the more sought for. Following this profession is Mr. Kyrle A. Morris who has manifested great ability for the work and who is well known to the citizens of Janesville, through the fact that he has designed some of its most handsome and conspicuous buildings. He has a wide reputation throughout the surrounding country and is at present designing a furniture factory to be erected in Jefferson and also a church for that city, while he is likewise designing a school house for Hanover. During the seven months that he has been established in business here at 429 Hayes Building he has shown that he is thoroughly conscientious in the performance of his duties and is faithful to the interests of his patrons. These qualifications have hastened him on to success, reputation and material results and have caused him to be looked upon as one of the foremost architects in the state.

UP-TO-DATE BARBER SHOP.

Chas. W. Wisch, Prop.
Without doubt one of the finest barber shops and bath rooms in this section of Wisconsin is the one named above, located in the basement of the Hayes Building. This shop employs every modern convenience for giving to the public the highest facilities in the barber trade, and that it has been successful in meeting the requirements of the large and constantly increasing patronage which it enjoys. Four chairs are operated and four expert artists give to the people of Janesville a service as good as any to be found in the larger cities, while every consideration of cleanliness is strictly observed in every instance and especially in the bathing department. Mr. Chas. W. Wisch, the genial and popular proprietor of this shop, began business here two years ago, and by his courteous and attentive treatment to visitors has become well and favorably known to a large portion of the community who express their appreciation of his fine personal qualities and skill by giving him their patronage.

MISS MAY NORRIS.

Stenographer and Notary.
When a business man, attorney, clergyman or anybody in fact, of Janesville desires to have expert stenographic work executed they have been in the habit of taking it to Miss May Norris' office, Room 221, Hayes Building. Miss Norris is expertly proficient as a stenographer and her ability is recognized by all who are acquainted with the requirements of such work. She is prepared to do typewriting of all kinds on short notice and in the most accurate and careful manner while she is also prepared to report any important sermons, speeches, etc. Miss Norris has made a most unqualified success of her work and by her industry, tact and uniform courtesy has won the respect and esteem of all who know her.

THE BASEMENT SHOE SHOP.

Hugh M. Joyce, Prop.
One of the oldest shoe men in Janesville is Mr. Hugh M. Joyce who owns and conducts the Basement Shoe Shop at 151 W. Milwaukee St. Mr. Joyce has been in this business for the last 40 years and for 27 years has been located in this city, during which time he has always been identified with the best interests of the community. His shop is well equipped in all particulars for custom work, shoemaking and repairing at reasonable prices. He uses only the best grades of leather, with an expert mechanical skill and does his work in a manner as to make the shoe both comfortable and desirable. Mr. Joyce also makes a specialty of treating corns, bunions and ingrowing nails, at which he is remarkably successful. He has been located in his present quarters for only about one year and a half, but during that time he has made the Basement Shoe Shop widely known and here he daily attends to the requirements of a large patronage who appreciate his long and faithful service in the community.

HARRY A. MOESER.

Real Estate Insurance, Loans, Steamship Agent, Notary.
No form of investment has become so important and popular with the conservative public as judiciously selected real estate, for not only is a permanent source of income insured, but also a reasonable certainty of increase in value. Harry A. Moeser carries on a general real estate business, collecting rents, attending to property of non-residents, buying, selling and exchanging property, and he also writes insurance and makes loans on acceptable security. The care and promptness with which he executes all business entrusted to him has very naturally drawn to him an extensive clientele. He issues policies in the following insurance companies, among others, United States Fire Insurance Co., "Glard," Spring Garden Insurance Company, and acts as agent for the Hamburg-American, Allian Dominion Steamship line and International Navigation Co. and other lines, and has his office over 73 West Milwaukee Street. In real estate he has some very desirable property on his list, and these are offered at most liberal inducements. Mr. Moeser has been engaged in business here for the past nine years and as built up one of the most influential and extensive agencies in this part of the state. He is in every way a wide awake and progressive business man, and is doing his full share towards promoting the interests of this section, and he is regarded as being among Janesville's most worthy citizens.

W. J. CANNON.

New and Second Hand Furniture and Stoves.
Nowhere in Janesville can the people do their shopping to more advantage than at the establishment of W. J. Cannon at 153 West Milwaukee Street. This fact has been fully demonstrated time and again and it is coming to be that the people recognize that they can find better values for less money at this establishment than can be found elsewhere. The quarters occupied contain a most complete line of new and second hand furniture, the new furniture being of artistic and tasteful design and the second hand goods being in first-class condition and offered at the most reasonable prices. The line of stoves is also very complete and are offered at prices that cannot fail to win the attention and appreciation of the public. A specialty is also made of buying and selling second hand goods of all kinds and bargains are offered in these lines that are superior to any other in this section of the country. Mr. Cannon, during his three years of business activity in this city has demonstrated that he is a man of unusual business ability and, together with his courteous and attentive treatment of visitors, has won for him the high regard of the citizens of this community.

D. W. WATT.

Real Estate.
Men of honor, ability and energy are always a great benefit to the community in which they reside and in Janesville a name prominent in this category is that of Mr. D. W. Watt, who has been engaged in the real estate business in this city for the past eleven years. He has handsomely appointed offices at 416 Hayes Building and he does an extensive business in buying and selling city and farm realty. He is one of the most energetic and popular business men of Janesville and his liberal methods have ever commanded for him the greatest confidence and most generous patronage. Mr. Watt is one of the most public spirited men of this city and has always identified himself with the best interests of the community, and he well merits the high esteem in which he is held.

THE RACKET STORE.

A. Rider, Prop.
The above establishment is one of the best known in the city and offers to the public every advantage that a store of this kind is supposed to possess. Located prominently at 163 West Milwaukee Street, this store contains everything in the way of novelties, and kitchen utensils, bric-a-brac, glass ware, cups saucers, notions and everything in fact that one could expect to find in a fully equipped store of this character. This store has been established for 10 years and its proprietor, Mr. A. Rider, has been eminently successful in catering to the wants of the public. Understanding thoroughly every detail of the business he is able to offer to the public the best values that the market affords and that this condition is appreciated by the public is shown by the large patronage which this store regularly enjoys. Two courteous sales people are employed and every attention is given to the wants of the visitors. At the present time extensive preparations are being made for the holiday trade and this store bids fair to offer very attractive and unusual features to the Christmas shoppers. Mr. Rider is at all times strictly honorable in all his dealings and his word is relied upon by all with whom he comes in contact and he is universally recognized as a most worthy citizen.

E. P. DRAKE.

Barber.
There is almost as much enjoyment in a good shave as in a good meal, consequently it is classed as one of the necessities of life. For a good clean shave that will make your face smile with pleasure we recommend our readers to Mr. E. P. Drake's place at 213 W. Milwaukee Street. He operates two chairs and all the instruments and conveniences of his shop are first-class in every particular. You can not possibly go away from this shop without being pleased with the service and the treatment you have received, and as a consequence Mr. Drake has made for himself many friends during the year, during which he has been established here and they all hold him in high esteem.

ROBINSON BREWING CO.

F. P. Williams, President.
Oct. 6, 1900, the Robinson Brewing Company was organized for the purpose of better conducting and managing the extensive business of the Robinson brewery. This brewery was originally established in 1868 by J. G. Todd, coming into the proprietorship of Robinson & Farley about 1880, and being reorganized under its present style Oct. 6, 1900, with F. P. Williams, president and treasurer, and N. B. Robinson vice-president and secretary, and Oct. 26, 1901, Mr. Robinson's stock was transferred to Mrs. F. P. Williams, Mr. Robinson retiring from the business. This company makes a specialty of brewing and porter of superior quality, which they widely distribute throughout one hundred and twenty-eight towns of the surrounding country. Their business is of considerable proportions and the capacity of their plant is two hundred barrels per month, a good proportion of which goes to some of their larger customers in Milwaukee. The buildings used by this company are new, and another, 60x75 feet, will shortly be erected, in order to accommodate the increasing volume of business. This business is one of the most important of the community and is conducted in a manner that is a high testimonial to the ability and business capacity of the stockholders, who have always taken a prominent part in the commercial enterprises of this community. Mr. F. P. Williams, who was for over 10 years connected with the Janesville post office, is well and favorably known as one of Janesville's best citizens and his host of friends are pleased at the success which he has experienced.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS.

Dentist.
A person's ill health in many cases may be properly traced to decayed or diseased teeth, and long practice and the exercise of patience and care are absolutely necessary to fit the practitioner for perfection in this work. Cleanliness of the mouth is as essential to the health as a clean skin, and since establishing here last April, Dr. Richards has been gaining distinction for his skill and ability in the dental profession. He graduated from the Louisville College of Dentistry in 1889 and since that time has been continuously engaged in his practice. Dr. Richards has handsomely furnished and thoroughly equipped offices at 315 Hayes Building and is rapidly gaining a practice that reflects his great personal worth and professional skill. He is not bound by any pledges to stick to high prices and the people will find it to their interest to consult him for terms on their work.

THE SILVER MOON.

A. McLellan, Prop.
"There are five reasons why men drink: 'Good wine, a friend, because I am dry, or any other reason why.' And when you want the best, and the best served in the best manner, go to the Silver Moon, 12 North Main Street, where you will be served with the best goods and will be treated in the best manner by its genial proprietor, Mr. A. McLellan. He serves City Beer, and Old Dave Janes and Kentucky whiskey, as well as all the other leading brands of goods, and there is no reason why you can't get just what you want here. Everything about this bar is first-class, and during the last years that Mr. McLellan has operated it he has made it so popular that it has become headquarters for those who desire entertainment of this nature. Mr. McLellan is one of those men who believes in treating everybody right and he has won a measure of public esteem and confidence that is hard to beat.

BAUMANN BROS.

Staple and Fancy Groceries.
The grocery trade is one in which every man, woman and child is directly interested, for it caters to all alike, the rich, the poor, the old and the young of all conditions, without reference to religious belief or political bias. The grocery is the missionary of home comfort, and above all men he should be honest, just and liberal, for upon him most of all the civilized world depends. Baumann Bros. conduct one of the most popular and prosperous grocery houses in the city, and it will compare favorably with the best anywhere. The stock comprises a full and first-class line of staple and fancy groceries, bottled and canned goods, fruits, vegetables, teas and coffees, and a full line of family supplies. This business was established three years ago has been operated for about one year in its present quarters at 14 North Main Street, which are excellently fitted up for the accommodation of a magnificent trade. Messrs. E. C. and G. M. Baumann are two of the most highly esteemed and respected citizens of Janesville, who are always prominent in the affairs of the community and foremost in every movement that is conducive to the best interests of the town and people.

Their store is headquarters for cheese of all kinds, they make a specialty of "Pure Gold Flour—none better," and give special attention to their coffee and tea trade, guaranteeing the quality and flavor of the goods they sell. They have both 'phones No. 260, and all orders receive prompt attention.

R. B. HARPER.

Meat Market.
Mr. Harper has the distinction of conducting one of the largest and most liberally patronized meat markets in the city. At 29 North Main Street, where he removed on Sept. 11th, he has on hand at all times a choice line of fresh, salt and smoked meats, lard and sausages, which are all kept in the most wholesome and refreshing condition by the best of refrigerators and cold storage facilities. All his goods in fact are noted for their freshness and purity, and this, with the reputation for promptly filling all orders, has won for him a patronage of large proportions. He faithfully looks after the wants of customers and makes a specialty of choice cuts of all kinds. Mr. Harper has been in the business for eleven years, being formerly located on West Milwaukee Street, and with the skillful assistance which he employs, he is able to give his patrons the benefit of both long experience and the most satisfactory service. Mr. Harper is an affable and popular man whose success is due entirely to his own well directed efforts.

C. D. STEVENS.

Staple and Fancy Groceries.
A well selected stock of groceries and polite and attentive service in supplying the needs of the public are always recognized and appreciated by the discerning purchaser. C. D. Stevens' grocery store, located at 7 North Main Street, exhibits in catering to the needs of the public of Janesville and vicinity all the elements of progress and reliability. The standard preparations and productions in the food line are kept constantly on hand and alertness in buying facilities is instrumental in quoting prices which popularize the establishment. This business has been established for about two years and a half, and beginning by the adoption of a wise policy to handle standard productions and preparations of tried and known merit, the recognition of the leading families hereabouts was soon obtained and a patronage built up which yet shows a steady increase. The store quarters are well arranged and special attention is given to preserving conditions, neat, clean and inviting, as these promote and maintain purity and wholesomeness. This business is among the young and vigorous of Janesville's local retail enterprises and gives to the public all that is best in food commodities at reasonable prices, and a class of service which invites recognition, continued patronage, and promotes satisfaction.

C. GRAY & COMPANY.

Manufacturers of Famous Ginger Ale, Soda Water, Etc.
The above establishment is one of much importance to the community because it supplies a large number of concerns throughout the surrounding country, who make a business of handling anything in the way of ginger ale, soda water, champagne, cider and seltzer water. These beverages are extensively consumed by the public and it is desirable that they be of good quality and of wholesome and sanitary properties. The products manufactured by C. Gray & Company possess all of these attributes, for they are made of the most wholesome ingredients and are bottled in clean and sanitary surroundings at 51 Locust Street, where their bottling plant is established. This company does an extensive business and makes large deliveries to all sections of the city and to many of the surrounding towns and villages, and its operations contribute much to the prestige and standing which Janesville enjoys in commercial circles. The management accordingly deserves the highest measure of praise for their efforts, which are of such benefit alike to all classes.

G. A. CROSSMAN.

Second-hand Furniture and Household Goods.
Here, there and elsewhere in our homes or places of business there are hundreds of articles which have survived their usefulness as far as their owners are concerned and which have come to be a useless incumbrance. There are scores of people willing and ready to possess these discarded articles and pay a fair price for them, if they could only know where to find them. The establishment of G. A. Crossman, located at 33 North Main Street, brings these two classes of people together, the seller and the buyer. He is at all times ready to pay a fair price for household goods, furniture, stoves, etc., and at the same time carries a large stock of articles, both new and old, which he offers at ridiculously low figures. The best people of this section have discovered the many advantages held out by him, and with their usual good sense, seek their needs at his establishment. During the ten years that Mr. Crossman has been in business, a nice trade has been established and the future is bright and promising. Housekeepers when in Janesville should not fail to visit this store and stock, where bargains are constantly being offered daily, well satisfied and tell their friends. Mr. Crossman will give you the same courteous treatment that he gives to all visitors and will make the time spent with him of much profit to you. He carries a large variety of stoves, both cooking and heating, and can offer you most tempting inducements in this line.

FRANKLIN HOTEL.

W. H. Minick, Prop. In neat, select and home like accommodations, the Franklin Hotel, located at the corner of Franklin and Dodge streets, offers to the visitor in Janesville superior advantages. It is neatly and comfortably furnished, and offers meals well cooked, promptly served, and containing a selection of meats and vegetables in season. The owner, Mr. W. H. Minick, has conducted this hotel for nearly two years and during that time has demonstrated his ability to supply popular needs, and extend to his patrons hospitality and good fellowship. He operates a barn in connection with the hotel, and here every facility is offered to those who own horses. When in Janesville visit the Franklin Hotel, and be made at home by its sensible and satisfactory service. Mr. Minick will treat you right, and will see that you have no cause for dissatisfaction or complaint.

CHICAGO SHOE REPAIRING CO.

Charles Goodman, Prop. Shoes to be comfortable must be in good repair, and it is also necessary for our physical welfare that we keep our feet well booted. To do this we must frequently take them to the cobbler and to no other place can we more willingly recommend our customers than the Chicago Shoe Repairing Co., owned and operated by Mr. Chas. Goodman. Mr. Goodman has been in this business here for the past eighteen months and his place at 167 W. Milwaukee St. contains all the appliances for executing the most satisfactory work, and he also carries a nice stock of shoes from which a selection may be made suitable to any purpose. Mr. Goodman is always faithful in meeting the wants of his patrons and his shop is one of the most popular in the city. The prices prevailing here are popular, men's shoes being half soled for 50c, ladies and children's shoes half soled for 40c, and all work is done while you wait. The Chicago Shoe Repairing Company is justly known as a most reputable institution and Mr. Goodman is a most worthy citizen who enjoys the confidence and esteem of the entire community.

SKELLY & WILBUR.

Wholesale and Retail Groceries. "Be sure you are right and then go ahead," is an old saying, but it is very good advice. It applies to the buying of groceries, as well as to other things. Be sure you are buying the right goods at the right place and at the right price. You can be sure of all these points at Skelly & Wilbur's well stocked, pure food store at 3 and 5 South Jackson Street. These gentlemen could not have built up the business they have here, this not so. People want the best and the most for their money, and they go where they can get it, that is why they go to Skelly & Wilbur. The stock embraces all that is desirable in staple and fancy groceries, provisions, canned goods, table delicacies, and fruits and vegetables. It is a stock comprehensive in selection and correct in price, and in the twelve years that Messrs. G. W. Skelly and F. L. Wilbur have been in business, they have developed a patronage which in magnitude and class is not exceeded anywhere in this part of the country. Their business is extensive, and nine people are constantly employed in attending to the wants of customers throughout a large territory. Messrs. Skelly & Wilbur are bright, reliable business men, and their success is but a just reward of well directed efforts.

HAYNER & BEERS.

Insurance. Insurance, no matter what class, has become a necessary part of the expense to be yearly met by men in all lines of business and he who neglects to properly protect the property has no adequate conception of judicial business principles. This universal necessity leads us to call special attention to the insurance agency conducted by Hayner & Beers which was originally established 26 years ago by Mr. Silas Hayner, and which assumed its present style six years ago when Mr. C. P. Beers entered the firm. They are located at present in Room 4, Sutherland & Carpenter Block, but on the completion of the Jackson Block they will return to their old office there, that has been occupied by Silas Hayner and the firm since 1875. They issue insurance policies for some of the strongest companies now doing business, among others the "Home" of New York, Liverpool, London & Globe, "Royal" of Liverpool and others of equal prominence and reputation. Messrs. Hayner & Beers have a high standing with those companies that have wisely selected them as their representatives and a well deserved reputation among the citizens of this county, as highly capable, straight forward men, honorable in all their dealings. The class of insurance issued is the very best to be had and the policies are satisfactory, both to the public and the companies whose interests they so ably subserve. Fire, accident and casualty policies are issued on reasonable risks and losses are adjusted and paid promptly. Messrs. Hayner & Beers have always been closely associated with those things that promote the progress and prosperity of the community and they are respected by all with whom they come in contact.

JOHN ZAMZOW.

Shoe Repairing. Mr. Zamzow is not a cobbler, but a man who is thoroughly versed in the line of shoe repairing. He has been a shoe man here for 23 years, and is well known by most of our citizens. All his work is done in a neat and satisfactory manner. By his method of soleing and heeling, the shoe is restored to its original shape and usefulness, and there are no lumps, pegs or nails left to torment the feet. He uses the best quality leather and executes all work for reasonable prices, and may be found at all times in his shop at 8 South River Street. Prices are low work up-to-date, and satisfaction guaranteed, and Mr. Zamzow is a most worthy citizen who enjoys the confidence and esteem of the people.

COLVIN'S BAKING CO.

Wholesale and Retail Bakers. A well regulated bakery is a desirable industry to have in any community. The people must have bread, and when they can get a good wholesome article without the trouble of preparing it themselves, they are fortunate indeed. Colvin's Baking Co. is the largest concern of this kind in Southern Wisconsin, and it is acknowledged as the leader. It was founded sixteen years ago, and during that time has built up a patronage which includes all of the principal towns in Wisconsin and North-Eastern Illinois. The commodious quarters at 71 West Milwaukee St., are excellently equipped for doing a high order of work, and eighteen people are employed in making the finest of bread, cake, pies and pastries. The officers of this company are R. L. Colvin, president; Ray Colvin, vice-president; and Paul R. Colvin, secretary. They are generally recognized as being among our most prominent citizens, and their success in giving to the community such a modern and representative enterprise commands the respect and good will of all people. This is in fact, one of the most substantial and honored institutions of this city, and the members of the company are of strict integrity with the highest standing in the community.

DOTY MILLS.

Custom Grinding, Wholesale Feed, Grain and Hay. In the above concern we have a most important factor to the success of the farmer of this locality and it adds not a little to the general prosperity of the community. This business was established sixteen years ago and is owned by Mr. E. P. Doty. Located on South River Street and equipped with the best machinery for the manufacture of high grade roller flour, meal, feed stuff and the like, Doty's Mill offers every advantage that the farmer could require in these matters. Besides being a custom grinding business this mill makes the well known "Blue Cross" Rye Flour and "Blue Cross" Buckwheat flour, which are used extensively by the people of a wide territory and which possesses the qualities of purity and health giving properties that commend it to general use. An extensive wholesale business in feed, grain and hay is also conducted and this concern is the center of trade for a large proportion of the farmers and horse owners here about. Mr. Doty has had wide experience in this business, is reliable and trustworthy in all things and he enjoys in the highest degree the confidence of all with whom he comes in contact.

F. ANDREWS.

Painter and Finisher. The mechanical expertness which characterizes the work of Mr. F. Andrews whose place of business is at 211 W. Milwaukee St., has won for him the recognition of the leading and influential people of this section. Mr. Andrews has had a wide experience in the present business and he knows every detail. He executes orders for all manner of house sign and furniture painting and finishing, and he does his work with a skill and artistic finish that is rapidly building for him a reputation among our people which calls for pronounced skill, experience and judgment to give it the best effect, and what is more desired the valuable quality of durability. Since his establishment here last Spring, Mr. Andrews has taken front rank in his trade and those desiring work of a high character should give him a call. His work speaks for itself and drives home the conviction that he is a master of his trade.

L. F. KNIPP'S BREWERY.

Louis F. Knipp, Proprietor. Knipp's Brewery produces a quality of beer which is superior, and its products have a wide sale in this and adjoining counties. This brewery is located on North Franklin street and has a capacity of 10,000 barrels per year. If made of pure and the best selected cereals, beer contains health producing qualities which are demanded by the public at large. Good beer is a daily benefactor in the sick room. It is prescribed by a large majority of physicians because of its nourishing, flesh-giving and strength-producing qualities. It invigorates the tired, worn and weary builds up many a seemingly wrecked constitution, and as an appetizer it has no equal. Just such a grade of the amber beverage is that produced by L. F. Knipp's brewery. It is absolutely pure and becomes a prime favorite after the first trial. The prominence gained by this particular beer has been of a highly gratifying character and today its reputation in this section is widespread and universal. The first trial will convince you that Knipp's beer is the one you have been looking for, and you will thereafter use it in preference to all others. Mr. Louis F. Knipp, who has conducted this business for nineteen years is among the most popular and prominent citizens of this community and his efforts have been substantially rewarded by the approval and good will of all classes of citizens.

THOMAS REILLY

Bakery and Confectionery. Among those who have just recently begun business here is Mr. Thomas Reilly, who opened a bakery and confectionery store at 107 West Milwaukee Street about three weeks ago. He has started out with a determination to give the people just what they want in the way of first-class bakery goods and fine confectionery, and those who know him predict that he will be eminently successful in his endeavors. Mr. Reilly is thoroughly experienced in this line of work and he possesses those qualities of industry and enterprise that win success. He offers to the people goods that contain all the elements of wholesome and pure ingredients, and which are prepared amidst clean and healthful surroundings. His bread is of the best, and his candies are of the sweetest, and our citizens are to be congratulated upon having such a progressive business in their midst. Mr. Reilly is a man of strict integrity and honorable methods, and he deserves the consideration and support of our citizens.

H. F. SCHERMAN.

Merchant Tailor. There is no longer a question as to the propriety of the employment of a competent merchant tailor, with those who appreciate properly fitting garments. Clothing made for no body in particular, fits nobody in particular, and among the business men of this city who make a specialty of taking your measure and fitting you properly, is Mr. F. H. Scherman whose place of business is located at 2 South Jackson Street. Mr. Scherman is a pleasant, reliable gentleman to do business with, and he will make you suits to order in a manner to give satisfaction. This is a matter which he can guarantee, for he does his own work, and being a man of much skill and experience, knows exactly what his capabilities are. He is an expert tailor and cutter, keeps an eye on the prevailing styles, and spares no effort to give his customers just what they want, both as to material, fit and workmanship. He also does repairing in a highly satisfactory manner, and is an energetic and pushing business man who has the respect and confidence of all.

ALLIE RAZOOK.

Confectionery, Fruits, Ice Cream and Oysters. Lovers of life's delicacies and luxuries can find in the confectionery and fruit store of Allie Razook located at 30 S. Main Street, superior accommodations to thoroughly satisfy the most critical taste. The confectionery department contains a full and complete stock of candy and confections, in a variety of quality and flavor, and which are of his own make, being fresh every day and he is in position to furnish you for your holiday goods in this line. A fine line of fruits of all kinds is carried and these are kept constantly fresh and appetizing by quick sales and constant arrival of fresh goods. This store has a reputation with the people for the fine quality of oysters which may be secured here in season and every facility in the way of refrigerators is utilized to keep these goods in the best of condition. This business was established three years ago and since that time an excellent patronage has been built up among the best classes of our citizens. The proprietor, Allie Razook, is to be commended on providing the public with first class advantages and a resort whose character of service meets with well merited recognition.

OTTEMANN HOUSE.

Fred Lutz, Prop. The first question that confronts the traveler is, "Where can I get good accommodations for a reasonable amount of money?" To the majority of travelers this question is most important. The Ottemann house is an old establishment and for the past two years has been owned and operated by Mr. Fred Lutz. It contains nine nicely appointed guest rooms and every accommodation is offered to the public in the way of well lighted and well ventilated sleeping apartments. All the furnishings are neat and every consideration given to the comfort of guests. A well stocked sample room is in connection and here may be secured the finest liquors and Janesville beer which is constantly on tap. Mr. Lutz is a man who thoroughly understands the wants of the public and he has proven his ability to supply these wants in the most satisfactory manner, and it is the wish of his many friends that success will continue to crown his efforts.

W. B. CONRAD.

Leaf Tobacco. W. B. Conrad makes a business of buying tobacco and preparing it for the eastern market. For this business he occupies a large warehouse and employs thirty-five people in season. He buys tobacco in all parts of Wisconsin and the northwest and is the center of distribution of a large proportion of the tobacco industry of the United States. This business was started in 1879 as Conrad Bros., and has operated under its present style for the past five years with an office at 3 Court Street. This house is widely known in the commercial centers of the country for the superior quality of tobacco which it supplies to the trade and its business is of steady growth and substantial proportions. Mr. W. B. Conrad, the proprietor, is a man of much experience in all matters pertaining to the tobacco industry, and his operations do much to keep Janesville in the fore front of Wisconsin's commercial communities.

J. A. PICKETT.

Staple and Fancy Groceries. Conspicuous among the numerous groceries of the city and one that is well known to the local trade is that of Mr. J. A. Pickett, located at 37 S. Main Street. This house from the beginning, three years ago, gained popularity and prestige for quality of goods, large variety and general excellence. The premises are neatly arranged and the stock is filled with a choice selection of everything pertaining to the grocery trade in staple and fancy goods, provisions, coffees, teas, spices and table delicacies. All patrons are waited on promptly and in a polite manner, and orders are delivered to any part of the city. Mr. Pickett is fully posted in all the details of the business and the requirements of the trade, and he is meeting with a most gratifying and well merited success.

WALTER HELMS.

Seeds. The business of dealing in seeds is one of the most important in which a man could engage. There are seeds of all kinds to be had at most any old price, but good seeds are difficult to obtain. You never can tell whether seeds are good or bad until you have tried them, and when blue grass comes up half rag weeds your opinion of the dealer who sold you such poor quality of seeds would not make good printed matter. The thing to do in buying seed then, is to go to a man whom you can absolutely trust, who knows his business and who handles none but the very best quality. Such a man is Walter Helms, whose store is located at 29 S. Main Street, and who has been identified with the seed business in this city for the past twenty one years. During all that time Mr. Helms has never failed to keep his word with customers, and his long years of experience exclusively in the seed business makes him a person upon whose judgment and word you can safely rely in the matter of seeds. Accordingly his business has always prospered and Mr. Helms is justly regarded as one of the most substantial, reliable and desirable business men.

H. F. NOTT.

Pianos, Musical Instruments, Sheet Music, Etc. The cultivation of the musical taste of the people is not only a worthy thing in itself, but it also tends to improve social conditions. Apropos to these remarks we refer to Mr. H. F. Nott, who is a lover of music for its own sake and who is doing much to promote the art in this vicinity. He has achieved a marked success and has built up a widely extensive clientele throughout this section. The business at 38 S. Main Street, which was established about ten years ago, includes a stock which comprises one of the largest and most select assortments of musical instruments in this part of the state. Here will be found all the leading makes of pianos, including the Hardman, Newman Bros., Lester and Braumuller, while such articles as the "gramophone," music boxes, guitars, mandolins, banjos, violins, and other small musical instruments, as well as sheet music, both classic and popular, may here be secured at reasonable prices. It is an ideal place to secure your holiday goods. Mr. Nott is recognized as a leader in the business, is a refined and courteous gentleman and in all circles has many friends and patrons.

O. D. BATES.

Groceries. It may not be generally known, but it is nevertheless the truth that Janesville's reputation for superior establishments and first-class facilities is away ahead of many cities of greater pretensions. Contributing to this state of things is the enterprising house of Mr. O. D. Bates at 40 S. Main Street. Here Mr. Bates deals in staple and fancy groceries, canned goods, dry fruits, spices, coffee, tea and good things to eat generally, and the best goods in the market can be found in this stock. Mr. Bates began this business here one year ago and during that time his energetic and capable methods have built up a most substantial patronage. He is a shrewd buyer and as he gives the people fresh and reliable goods at fair prices his sales are increasing day by day. Mr. Bates is one of the most substantial business men of the city and he is doing much to promote the city's interests and is highly regarded by all.

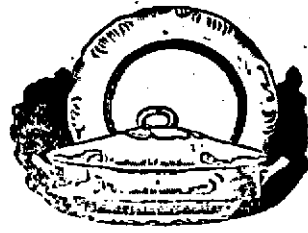

W. C. HART.

Sample and Billiard Room. One of the deservedly popular resorts in Janesville is the Sample and Billiard Room conducted by W. C. Hart. The quarters located at 16 E. Milwaukee Street occupy two floors and are handsomely fitted up in the most approved manner. The bar contains a complete stock of wines, old whiskies and fine bottled goods while Val Blatz beer is constantly on tap and is served in a most refreshing manner. On the second floor are two billiard and pool tables, which are in constant use by those who have a liking for this pastime and who appreciate the advantages that are offered by this resort. This place is conducted in the most quiet and orderly manner, there being an entire absence of that class of people who destroy the pleasures of others by their own noisy and boisterous enjoyment. Mr. Hart began business in Janesville eight years ago and started in to conduct his establishment on strictly first-class lines, handles first-class goods and gives to the socially inclined a resort where can be secured a refreshing glass of

FOR A BABY OF THIS SIZE

Or a baby of any size, when suffering from simple fevers, coated tongue, constipation, or any trouble arising from the stomach, the purest, safest and best remedy is LAXAKOLA, the great tonic laxative.

Mothers, watch your children carefully. Their health, perhaps their lives, depend on keeping their bowels regular. Many parents make a fatal mistake by giving their little children the old-fashioned, violent purgatives which are racking and griping, and are therefore not only unpleasant, but dangerous. Make no mistake, give them

LAXAKOLA

It does not gripe nor irritate. It is a pure, gentle, speedy and painless liquid laxative. It is not only a sure laxative, but it contains valuable tonic properties which act upon the bowels, tone up the entire system and purify the blood.

A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, and it will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. It will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature and induce sleep.

For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongue, or any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach it is invaluable. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhoea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as LAXAKOLA neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation.

LAXAKOLA FOR THE COMPLEXION. Bloated, sallow, unwholesome and mottled skin, with its consequent mortification, often leading to morbid seclusion and aversion to society and friends, shows that your blood is bad. The only way to clear the complexion and restore it to its normal, healthy, velvety condition is to clean out the entire system, purify the blood and remove the causes, and Laxakola does it, as well as acting directly on the pores and assisting the perspiratory glands in throwing off impurities. It purifies the blood as no other medicine can, and your skin will not only be well but you will be well. At druggists, 25c and 50c. Send for free sample to LAXAKOLA CO., 129 Nassau Street, New York, or 324 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

Trade supplied by King's Pharmacy and People's Drug Store.

beer or liquor amid the most favorable conditions. The result is that his policy as it becomes known attracts a select patronage, which steadily increases as the months go by, and Mr. Hart is accordingly esteemed as one of our best citizens while his establishment is ranked among Janesville's popular enterprises.

JANESVILLE MACHINE CO.

Manufacturers of Agricultural Machinery

No one concerned has done more to make the name of Janesville widely known throughout every section of the republic than the Janesville Machine Company. The company is one of the best known manufacturers of modern agricultural implements in the United States and its products are used wherever agricultural industry is pursued. The Janesville Machine Co. was established in 1859 and in 1882 was incorporated for the purpose of carrying on the manufacture of plows, cultivators, disk harrows, seeders, drills, mowers and lever harrows of original and superior design. Every machine manufactured by this concern is warranted to be well built of good material and capable of doing good work in any place where any machine of its class can be successfully operated. The wide-spread use of these implements throughout the United States and foreign countries demonstrates that they have satisfactorily met every requirement made of them and their success has long since been established as an assured fact. The company has distributing headquarters in many of the principal cities of the country, which fact affords every facility for the prompt filling of all orders. Its factory comprises two city blocks and is thoroughly equipped with specially designed modern machinery for the manufacture of their superior product, giving employment to three hundred men constantly on the road in all parts of the country. The products of this firm as now presented to the public are the result of forty years of practical use and trial and every implement bears a special fitness for the work for which it was intended. The officers are: A. P. Lovejoy, president; Hiram Merrill, vice-president; J. G. Rexford, treasurer; W. F. Bosworth, secretary; J. A. Craig, general manager; and S. C. Cobb, superintendent, all of whom have done much to bring this establishment to its present high standing of efficiency and prestige. The success of this magnificent establishment has been the cause of much pride to our citizens, who universally regard it with feelings of much satisfaction. The officers are accordingly given a high rank in local business and social circles, which is a testimonial of their present worth.

THE ROCHESTER SHAMPOOING AND HAIRDRESSING PARLORS.

The Misses Knippenberg, Props.

The above establishment since its location here, one and one half years ago, has taken a prominent place in the business circles of the community. It is an exclusive ladies' hair dressing parlor, where is executed shampooing and hairdressing in the most artistic and satisfactory manner. The Misses A. and M. B. Knippenberg are thoroughly proficient in this line of work and they have demonstrated their ability to give the most satisfactory service at all times. Their parlors in Room 431 Hayes Building are elegantly equipped and here they are prepared at all times to respond to any demand which may be made upon them. The Misses Knippenberg are enterprising and energetic young women, who have made their business a success by close application and agreeable treatment of patrons and they are deserving of the extensive patronage which they have so worthily won. The women of this vicinity have come to look upon them as a necessity, and their parlors are constantly visited by the women of our best social circles.

E. A. TRUESDILL,

Tin Shop.

That Mr. Truesdill is all he claims—a practical tinner—is well known to all the people hereabouts and has been fully demonstrated by his seven years of faithful and conscientious service. He is located at 8 North First street, where he has a most thoroughly equipped shop and he is especially prepared to satisfactorily execute all orders for tin and sheet iron work, tin roofing, guttering, furnace repairing, etc. Mr. Truesdill is a most thoroughly skilled mechanic and many pieces of work and a large patronage attest his efficiency. He does repair work of all kinds, is fair and just in his charges, reliable and prompt in his methods, and he has ever enjoyed in the highest degree the esteem and confidence of his fellow men.

W. H. GROVE,

Blacksmith and Repairing.

Mr. Grove has demonstrated that he is a thorough master of all the details of his trade, and this is a matter of no little merit in a business so important as his. When we have so much to shoe we always want it done by some one who can do it properly, and in carriage work and repairing the same condition applies. Mr. Grove is thoroughly conversant with all the conditions of horses' feet and he places a shoe with due regard for those conditions, and likewise in repairing his work is eminently satisfactory. At 6 North First street he has a complete blacksmith shop where every facility is utilized for executing a high grade of work. He began business here twenty years ago and his reputation is so extended and patronage so large that he is kept constantly busy at all times. He can shoe a horse or do any kind of general blacksmithing and repairing, and while guaranteeing satisfaction in every case his charges are most reasonable. Mr. Grove is a self made man and his success is looked upon with favor by the people of Rock county, among whom he stands high.

LAMB & BARLASS.

Vehicles and Farm Implements. While the caption of this article does not call for complimentary allusions, yet we feel that as a matter of local pride we can speak more freely of this house than we otherwise would. Success in any business naturally carries with it good results, and for two years J. R. Lamb and D. M. Barlass have successfully supplied the demand of the trade in their line. Farm machinery, wagons, carriages, cutters and sledges are among the articles of commerce in the purchase of which buyers must to some extent rely upon the integrity of the dealers whose reputation and standing furnish a perfect guarantee of reliability. Lamb & Barlass stock furnishes an unparalleled opportunity for obtaining goods coming from the factory of the most reliable makers, and which are guaranteed. Among these are the Moline plows and Bettendorf steel wagons, McCormick harvesters, and corn cutters and shredders, binding twine and all other articles that could well be included in such a line of goods. Located at the Court Street bridge, Lamb & Barlass occupy commodious quarters, and here they carry one of the largest stocks in their line to be found in the state. Both members of the firm are practical implement men, and as they are honorable, industrious and reliable gentlemen, their popularity in business and financial circles extends far and wide and they control a large share of the trade in their line.

JAMES SHERIDAN.

Sample and Pool Room. The local public will bear the writer out in asserting that there is no more popular business man in Janesville nor one more deserving of the confidence and esteem of the community than Mr. James Sheridan. For the past four years he has conducted a sample and pool room at 10 South River Street, which is neatly and attractively furnished in all its appointments. The class of patronage comprises the best people of Janesville, of those who are among the socially inclined and pleasure-loving and this fact is reflected in the neatness, quiet and good order which is always maintained. Mr. Sheridan handles all the leading brands of wines and liquors whose purity and age are their leading qualities. Among others, he makes a specialty of Sheridan's Private Stock Rye, which has a wide and substantial reputation for its excellent qualities among the people of this section. He also keeps on draught City beer and Milwaukee beer, and carries besides, a well selected line of barrel goods. Taking the establishment as a whole, and viewing it from its stock, its class of patronage, its conditions and surroundings, it must be said that it is thoroughly representative of its line. Mr. James Sheridan the genial proprietor, has a host of friends in and about Janesville, and to say he is popular, is to repeat a statement which all will admit.

MORSE'S LUNCH ROOM.

L. Morse, Prop.

The usual experience of the stranger or visitor when seeking a lunch in any city or town is made up of a series of experiments. He goes here, there and elsewhere until he finds the particular place which suits him best. If the visitor in Janesville will go directly to Morse's Lunch Room, 165 West Milwaukee Street, which has just been fitted up in the most elegant and modern style, he will be saved the annoyance of experimenting and will find a place where the conditions and surroundings are both attractive and inviting. This business has been conducted by Mr. L. Morse for the last ten years and his new quarters are but an indication of the progressive policy which has always controlled his business. Mr. Morse knows what will best satisfy popular needs and his lunches have become famous to all who patronize his place. He also carries a fine line of fresh and wholesome bakery goods and confections, while the cigar case contains all of the leading and popular brands. Mr. Morse gives his attention to every detail of the business, and is always on the alert to discover a need and to supply it. He appreciates the fact that neat clean and wholesome surroundings are absolutely essential to the successful conduct and growth of his business and this condition is a marked characteristic of his new quarters. Mr. Morse is among Janesville's enterprising and hustling business men and to his perseverance and industry is due the prominence, wide popularity and large patronage which his lunch room enjoys.

E. HALL.

Crockery and Mens' Furnishings. When stock, resources and prices are considered, it is no matter of surprise that E. Hall gets a big trade in crockery and mens' furnishings, and that in the nineteen years of its history his house has developed into one of the leading institutions of its kind in the county. The quarters at 55 West Milwaukee Street are large, handsomely appointed and conveniently arranged and here is displayed a most valuable and select stock in mens' furnishings of all kinds and mens' working clothes of the most durable character, together with a most extensive and elaborate line of crockery in all the finest grades. This house has gained a reputation for the reliability and up-to-dateness of its goods, for the fairness of its dealings and for a trade which extends all over the surrounding country. Mr. E. Hall, the proprietor, is a gentleman of culture and refinement, and his every effort is directed towards the maintaining for his house the reputation as a leader and he is making extensive preparations for his holiday trade, which he expects will largely surpass that of any in the past.

RUGER & RUGER.

Attorneys at Law. The ability to carry a case of law through to a successful consummation requires unusual talent, great energy, unwavering persistence and singleness of purpose. A law firm composed of men who possess these qualities to a marked degree is that of Ruger & Ruger, whose office is located at 211 Hayes Building. Mr. William Ruger and William Ruger, Jr., hold a high position as members of the county bar. The senior member of this firm has been practicing for about thirty years, while his son was admitted to practice in 1897. During that time they have both demonstrated their entire fitness as lawyers and have been entrusted with many important cases, proving their knowledge of modern jurisprudence and displaying a wide acquaintance with all the information bearing upon the case in hand. They have also demonstrated that they possess in a high degree the qualities of good citizenship and they are both highly esteemed by all who know them.

BASSETT & ECHLIN,

Wholesale Saddlery.

The vast amount of harness, saddles and general horse furnishing goods now in use invest the industry as one of the most important in every community. One of the leading houses in the saddlery line in Wisconsin is that of Bassett & Echlin, which is generally regarded as one of the best harness and saddlery manufacturing and jobbing concerns in the state. They have been engaged in this business here for the past thirty-five years and their premises at 104-106 West Milwaukee street, are well equipped with every facility for executing a high class of work, and thirty-one skilled hands are constantly at work turning out their high grade products, while traveling salesmen are on the road at all times throughout Illinois, Wisconsin, and parts of several other states, securing orders to be filled. Messrs. C. Bassett and J. C. Echlin are both men of wide experience in all matters pertaining to the saddle, harness and leather industry, and that they are business men of much ability is shown by the abundant success which they have achieved. Their business is easily one of the most important of which Janesville can boast and they accordingly rank high in all the business and social circles of the city.
